2-YEAR STEEL PACT REPORTED

Given First Reading

Duffy's Job Stand Stalls Enactment Of Annual Funds

The annual appropriation ordinance fell one vote short of immediate enactment at a special Council meeting Wednesday night, which means the city will be without authority to spend a penny to pay bills after midnight Saturday, but the next payroll falling due on April 5 can be met with money already allocated.

Councilman Frank Duffy, calling for elimination of nine jobs and other economies, cast the lone dissenting vote which meant the ordinance was given only the first of three required readings instead of being approved immediately under suspension of rules.

Short Of Required Vote

Councilmen Kenneth Berg, S. James Welch, Edward Massey, George E. Willshaw and Robert W. Sample Jr. supported the legislation, but six votes were required to give it immediate passage. Councilman Floyd Murray was not present because he was working a shift that started at 11 p. m. at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Willshaw, chairman of the finance committee, pointed out that the 1962 appropriation provides a total of $1,372,045, up $33,850 from the $1,338,194 appropriated in 1961.

Council's regular meeting Monday night, when Murray is expected to attend, will decide whether the ordinance is enacted before mid-April.

However, in response to a query today, Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate pointed out the April 5 payroll can be met with funds provided in the temporary appropriation. The next payroll will cover the last half of March, so there is no question it can be paid.

And there apparently will be no delay in meeting the next payroll, which falls due April 20 for the first half of the month. Even if the ordinance requires three readings, it will be passed on April 16, which would allow plenty of time to meet the next ensuing payroll.

Some Debate Heated

A half-hour of debate, some of it heated, preceded the vote on the ordinance last night. The meeting actually extended into early today, as Council convened at 11:30 last night and did not adjourn until 12:30 a. m.

The temporary three-month appropriation under which the city has been operating since Jan. 8 expires at midnight Saturday. It provides funds for salaries, wages and routine operating expenses for the period Jan. 1-March 31.

Welch said he does not expect Council will call a series of special meetings to give two more readings to the appropriation measure. Instead, it will act on the legislation on its regular meeting dates, which fall two weeks apart, he indicated.

Following adjournment last night, Sample said that he will take a night off from work at Crucible Monday in order to cast a favorable vote on the ordinance

Frondizi's Deposed In Argentina

President Arrested In Bloodless Coup And Sent To Island

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—The armed forces finally deposed President Arturo Frondizi today in a bloodless, slow-motion coup and sent him to an isolated island for detention.

The military chiefs said they acted because the president, 53, had lost his grip politically and no longer was able to cope with resurgent Peronists and possible social disorders.

But as the generals, admirals and air force chiefs watched an air force plane carry Frondizi over the horizon they faced another problem—a successor to the deposed president.

Their announced selection for the job, Jose Maria Guido, Senate president and good friend of Frondizi, had not said he would accept.

The coup was finally executed 24 hours after the preliminary moves were made to occupy strategic control points throughout Argentina.

A naval officer, with a convoy of five cars, went to Frondizi's luxurious suburban home and placed him under arrest at 7:46 a.m. A small crowd outside the residence sang the national anthem. The tall, gaunt president, who had won out in 34 previous crises in his four-year rule, was driven to the airport and put on a plane for Martin Garcia Island in the River Plate.

On this island ex-dictator Juan D. Peron was imprisoned in 1945 when he was vice president. Many of the military leaders who watched Frondizi go were the ones who forced Peron's final downfall in 1955.

The slow action of the coup apparently was due to division and indecision within the ranks of the military. Also playing a possible part was hesitation over the reaction of the United States and the effect of a military take-over on the multibillion-dollar Alliance for Progress Program.

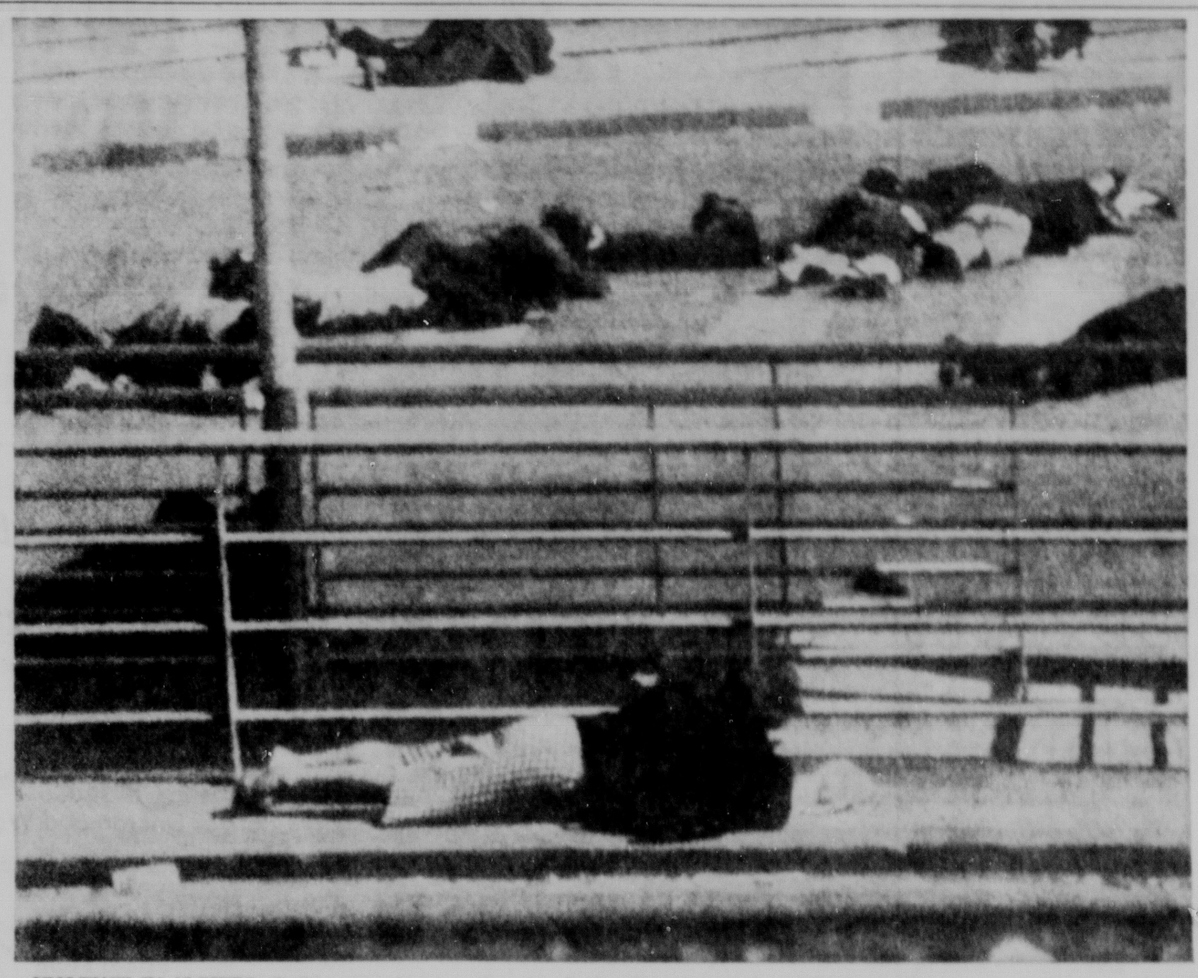

The final showdown came on the 12th day of a crisis precipitated by national elections in which Peronists captured five governorships and shared in others and gained 45 seats in the national Congress.

The military foes of Peron blamed Frondizi for allowing Peron's followers to stage the smashing comeback.

Accompanying Frondizi to Martin Garcia Island, 30 miles southeast of Buenos Aires, was his good friend, David Blejer, former minister of labor.

The three armed forces chiefs announced that Senate President Jose Maria Guido, next in line of presidential succession under the constitution, would succeed Frondizi.

There was no immediate announcement from Guido, however, that he would take the post. And Hector Gomez Machado, who heads Frondizi's Intransigent Radical party in the Chamber of Deputies, said he would not.

No Pay Hike Believed In Agreement

Non-Inflationary Contract Includes 'Fringe Benefits'

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Top-level steel negotiators reportedly have reached broad agreement on a non-inflationary labor contract for the steel industry.

Reliable Washington sources said the chief bargainers for the union and the major steel firms reached agreement on a two-year contract Wednesday. The United Steelworkers' Union international executive board and international wage policy committee have been summoned to meet here next Saturday. Union law requires that contract proposals be ratified by the wage policy committee.

The union's 11 company negotiating committees will meet Sunday.

As currently described, the new pact appears to meet President Kennedy's call for an early settlement, without a strike, and without inflationary provisions.

Coming three months ahead of the June 30 expiration date of existing contracts, the reported agreement would head off both a steel strike and a potentially dangerous rush to stockpile steel against the possibility of such a strike.

The agreement is said to pass up an immediate wage increase from the present average of $3.28 an hour paid to some 430,000 basic steelworkers. But it reportedly provides for about 10 cents an hour in fringe benefits—vacation, pension, and unemployment provisions.

The contract could be reopened, it is reported, for wage increase negotiations at the end of its first year.

The settlement terms were said to include improved seniority and grievance procedures and new authority for a joint continuing industry-union human relations committee, expected to ease the eventual reopening of wage talks.

Chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper of the U.S. Steel Corp. told a press conference after Wednesday's talks here that the negotiators have "defined the outline of the area" of possible agreement, and that much negotiating work remained to be done.

USW President David J. McDonald did not say whether the union's wage policy committee will be asked to vote on a proposal. He said only that the committee was summoned to bring it up to date on the bargaining.

Cooper and McDonald returned to the table for a 2-hour, 45-minute night meeting ending shortly before last midnight, but neither side had any comment after the session.

Formal negotiations began Feb. 14, collapsed March 2, then resumed March 14 at the request of President Kennedy. Both sides have said they planned to work for an early settlement.

When the talks broke down, the industry was reportedly offering a two-year package including a 6 to 8-cents-an-hour wage hike, while the union was holding out for 10 cents.

Tax Revision Bill Plugged By President

Says If GOP Kills Plan It Will Be Blow To Economy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today that if Republicans succeed in killing the administration's tax revision plan it will be a blow to the nation's economy.

He told his news conference he has "great difficulty in understanding the position of any political party that makes it a political objective to defeat this bill."

The President said that if the effort to kill the bill succeeds it will wipe out the hope of stimulating business investment, cost the country $600 million in taxes which now go uncollected on income from dividends and interest, and damage the administration's program for economic growth and increased national production.

Kennedy said everyone who wants this country to grow and provide new jobs should support the bill. It would, he said, close many tax loopholes that now exist.

House Republicans are driving to knock out of the bill tax incentives for business that would deprive the government of $1.2 billion in revenue it now receives. They also are maneuvering to defeat a proposed withholding tax on dividends and interest that would bring in an extra $650 million a year.

The presidential argument for the tax bill shared the news conference spotlight with Kennedy's announcement that Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Whittaker is retiring for reasons of ill health.

His retirement takes effect April 1. He will be eligible for half-pay on his $35,000 yearly salary.

Kennedy said nothing about a successor.

Red China's Parliament Finally Opens

Hunger, Quarreling In World-Wide Red Camp Major Issues

TOKYO (AP) — Red China's long-delayed National People's Congress—its rubber-stamp parliament—finally opened this week in Peiping against a backdrop of hunger and hard times at home and quarreling in the world Communist camp.

All the leaders of Chinese communism — with one exception—were present for the inaugural session in the Great Hall of the People, which flanks the Square of Heavenly Peace.

The exception was Marshal Peng Teh-huai, who dropped from sight in September 1959, soon after being relieved as minister of defense. A vice premier and member of the powerful Politburo of the Communist party, he is reported being disciplined for opposing Chairman Mao Tze-tung's ambitious communes program and the "great leap forward" in industry and agriculture.

French Lift Blockade In Tense Algiers

Troops, Armored Cars Patrol Streets Without Hostility

ALGIERS (AP) — The French army lifted its six-day blockade of the European workers' suburb of Bab el Oued today. Groups of men and women gathered on street corners to swap experiences as troops in halftracks, armored cars and jeeps slowly patrolled the narrow streets.

There was no visible hostility between the troops and the inhabitants who attacked army patrols in the section last Friday, killing 15 French soldiers and wounding more than 90.

After the outbreak the army sealed off the section and restricted the 50,000 inhabitants to their homes. In a house-to-house search they arrested some 3,000 persons, mostly youths and men between 16 and 40, and seized more than 1,000 arms of all kinds and large quantities of munitions and explosives.

The streets of Bab el Oued were littered with garbage because Moslem garbage men had refused to enter the hostile quarter. Scores of automobiles were riddled by bullets and one had been flattened by a tank.

Many shops reopened. Shopkeepers surveyed broken plate glass windows and other wreckage left by the battle. Many walls were still smeared with Secret Army slogans calling for a French Algeria and praising the Secret Army's fugitive chief, ex-Gen. Raoul Salan.

French flags draped in black hung from many balconies. The black was a sign of mourning for the 53 European civilians killed Monday in a demonstration organized by the Secret Army in sympathy for the inhabitants of Bab el Oued.

City's Burning Ban To Be Lifted 17 Days

A ban against burning will be lifted for 17 days beginning Friday to allow city residents to rid their yards and gardens of refuse, Fire Chief Charles Bryan said today.

The chief said the residents will be allowed to light outside fires through Sunday, April 15. This will provide three weekends for the homeowners to work in their yards, he said.

Residents were urged to use extreme caution and notify the department by the non-emergency number — FU. 5-1117 — before lighting the refuse.

Firemen then will not be answering calls to neighborhoods where someone spots smoke coming from such a fire.

4,094 Forms Sent For New Tax Payment

May 15 Deadline For First Returns From Individuals

The city today mailed report forms to 4,094 persons required to file individual returns under the new city income tax law, principally those whose wages are not subject to withholding by employers.

D. G. Wilkinson, city tax commissioner, pointed out the first individual payments are due by May 15, covering earnings and other income in March and April. The tax of 80 cents per $100 went into effect March 2.

Wilkinson pointed out today's mailing was addressed principally to persons who reside in East Liverpool but are employed outside the city. In such circumstances, employers are not required to withhold the tax from wages.

Individual returns also are required of employes of state and federal agencies and persons who have income of $100 a month or more from rental property, Wilkinson added.

Persons whose entire income is subject to withholding at the source are not required to file reports. The report filed by employers when paying the tax to the city obviates the need for individual returns.

Wilkinson also issued a reminder that final individuals returns are due by April 15 under the 1961 tax law that was repealed at the November general election. Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper said Wednesday he expects to file charges next week in Municipal Court against persons who failed to comply with the 1961 ordinance.

The tax office in the basement of City Hall is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and from 8:30 a.m. until noon on Saturdays. The personnel will assist in figuring the amount of taxes due and filing the forms, Wilkinson said.

Grass Fires Continue

State Says Dry Weather Makes Critical Conditions

Grass fires continued to plague district firemen with more calls Wednesday after a series of blazes that began Sunday as the result of the abnormally dry fields and woods and there were more today.

The Ohio Division of Forestry at Columbus said most of Ohio is experiencing critical forest fire conditions and O. A. Alderman, chief, urged everyone to be extremely cautious during the emergency.

He said conditions have worsened and "may become more critical before they improve."

Firemen hoped the forecast of a few showers this afternoon and tonight and cooler weather Friday may ease the situation but the state official said only a general rain of some duration will improve the outlook.

A forecast of much warmer temperatures — 68 to 74 today—with some wind, kept firemen on the alert.

City firemen extinguished a grass fire Wednesday at 1:18 p.m. at the home of Frank Posey of Carroll Ln. Papers being burned in a steel barrel blew out, igniting the grass, firemen said.

Two acres were burned over on the farm of John Baker on Route 39 near Highlandtown Wednesday evening. The Highlandtown volunteer department was notified of the blaze at 5 p. m. Twenty men responded.

A brush and grass fire at 1:40 p.m. in Fairfield Towhship burned off over 100 acres from Al's Lake northwest to the Midway Grange Hall.

Lisbon firemen assisted Columbiana firemen who asked help.

The fire spread over three farms and a number of buildings were in danger for a time.

At 5:20 p.m. Lisbon firemen were called to Saltwell Rd., where Mrs. John Marshalek was burning off grass on her land for which she had a permit. Neighbors had the fire under control and firemen returned to the station.

Three acres of grass and woods were burned near Amsterdam, four acres of woods on Flagpole Hill along Route 7 near the intersection of Route 123, and considerable acreage in Highland Creek Township north of Steubenville in other blazes.

Voter Signup Lists 10,071 For Primary

East Liverpool has 10,071 voters qualified for the May 8 primary elections, the County Election Board said today after ringing down the curtain Wednesday night on its semi-annual registration campaign.

Although 169 had qualified since Jan. 1, there was a net gain of only 75 in the registration list, the Election Board pointed out.

East Liverpool had 9,996 qualified electors on Jan. 1 after the annual year-end registration check to remove the names of those who had failed to vote in the preceding two years. The 169 names added between Jan. 1 and yesterday were offset by 94 others

2-YEAR STEEL PACT REPORTED

Given First Reading

Duffy's Job Stand Stalls Enactment Of Annual Funds

The annual appropriation ordinance fell one vote short of immediate enactment at a special Council meeting Wednesday night, which means the city will be without authority to spend a penny to pay bills after midnight Saturday, but the next payroll falling due on April 5 can be met with money already allocated.

Councilman Frank Duffy, calling for elimination of nine jobs and other economies, cast the lone dissenting vote which meant the ordinance was given only the first of three required readings instead of being approved immediately under suspension of rules.

Short Of Required Vote

Councilmen Kenneth Berg, S. James Welch, Edward Massey, George E. Willshaw and Robert W. Sample Jr. supported the legislation, but six votes were required to give it immediate passage. Councilman Floyd Murray was not present because he was working a shift that started at 11 p. m. at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Willshaw, chairman of the finance committee, pointed out that the 1962 appropriation provides a total of $1,372,045, up $33,850 from the $1,338,194 appropriated in 1961.

Council's regular meeting Monday night, when Murray is expected to attend, will decide whether the ordinance is enacted before mid-April.

However, in response to a query today, Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate pointed out the April 5 payroll can be met with funds provided in the temporary appropriation. The next payroll will cover the last half of March, so there is no question it can be paid.

And there apparently will be no delay in meeting the next payroll, which falls due April 20 for the first half of the month. Even if the ordinance requires three readings, it will be passed on April 16, which would allow plenty of time to meet the next ensuing payroll.

Some Debate Heated

A half-hour of debate, some of it heated, preceded the vote on the ordinance last night. The meeting actually extended into early today, as Council convened at 11:30 last night and did not adjourn until 12:30 a. m.

The temporary three-month appropriation under which the city has been operating since Jan. 8 expires at midnight Saturday. It provides funds for salaries, wages and routine operating expenses for the period Jan. 1-March 31.

Welch said he does not expect Council will call a series of special meetings to give two more readings to the appropriation measure. Instead, it will act on the legislation on its regular meeting dates, which fall two weeks apart, he indicated.

Following adjournment last night, Sample said that he will take a night off from work at Crucible Monday in order to cast a favorable vote on the ordinance

Frondizi's Deposed In Argentina

President Arrested In Bloodless Coup And Sent To Island

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—The armed forces finally deposed President Arturo Frondizi today in a bloodless, slow-motion coup and sent him to an isolated island for detention.

The military chiefs said they acted because the president, 53, had lost his grip politically and no longer was able to cope with resurgent Peronists and possible social disorders.

But as the generals, admirals and air force chiefs watched an air force plane carry Frondizi over the horizon they faced another problem—a successor to the deposed president.

Their announced selection for the job, Jose Maria Guido, Senate president and good friend of Frondizi, had not said he would accept.

The coup was finally executed 24 hours after the preliminary moves were made to occupy strategic control points throughout Argentina.

A naval officer, with a convoy of five cars, went to Frondizi's luxurious suburban home and placed him under arrest at 7:46 a.m. A small crowd outside the residence sang the national anthem. The tall, gaunt president, who had won out in 34 previous crises in his four-year rule, was driven to the airport and put on a plane for Martin Garcia Island in the River Plate.

On this island ex-dictator Juan D. Peron was imprisoned in 1945 when he was vice president. Many of the military leaders who watched Frondizi go were the ones who forced Peron's final downfall in 1955.

The slow action of the coup apparently was due to division and indecision within the ranks of the military. Also playing a possible part was hesitation over the reaction of the United States and the effect of a military take-over on the multibillion-dollar Alliance for Progress Program.

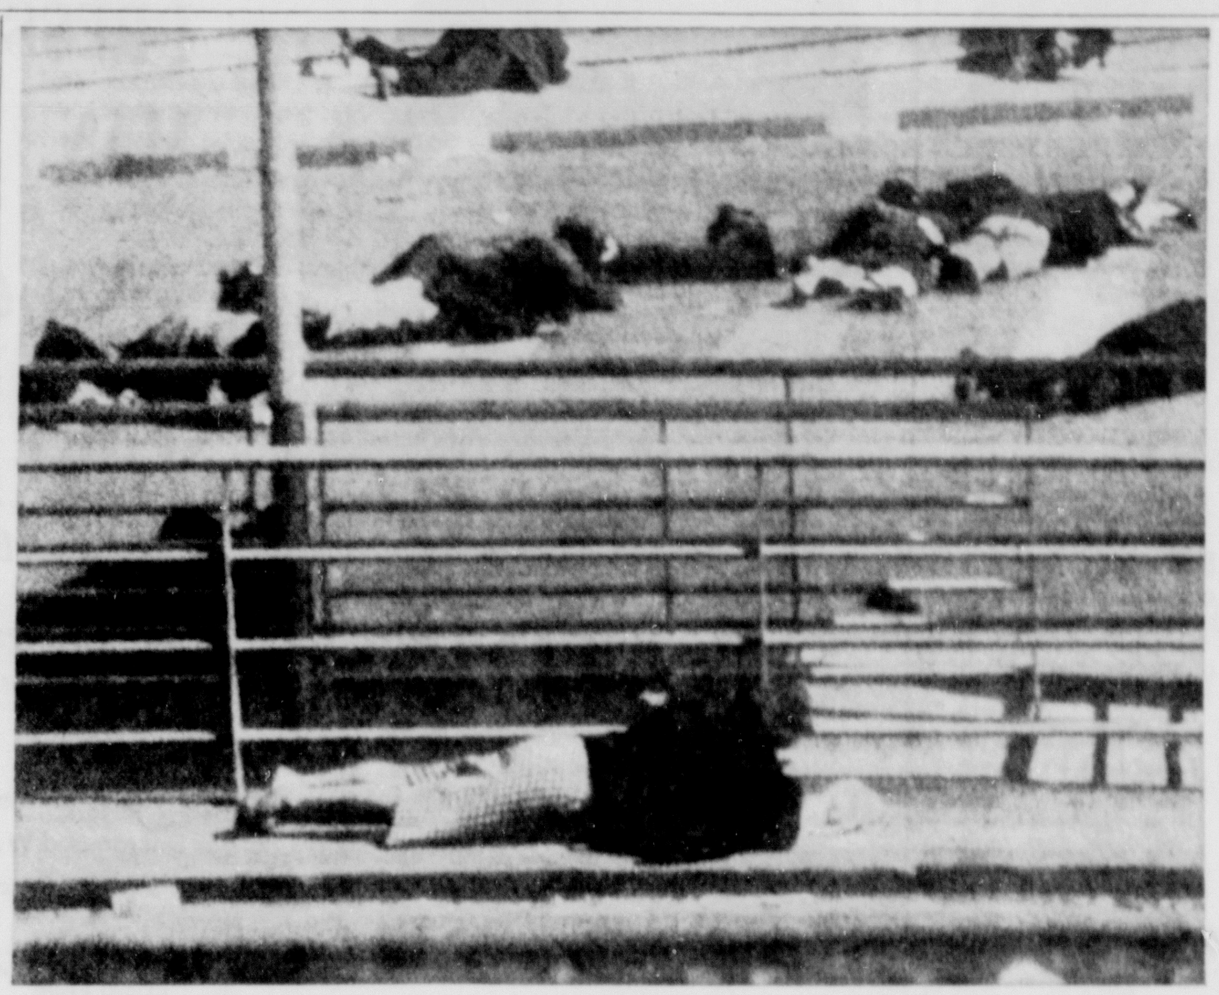

The final showdown came on the 12th day of a crisis precipitated by national elections in which Peronists captured five governorships and shared in others and gained 45 seats in the national Congress.

The military foes of Peron blamed Frondizi for allowing Peron's followers to stage the smashing comeback.

Accompanying Frondizi to Martin Garcia Island, 30 miles southeast of Buenos Aires, was his good friend, David Blejer, former minister of labor.

The three armed forces chiefs announced that Senate President Jose Maria Guido, next in line of presidential succession under the constitution, would succeed Frondizi.

There was no immediate announcement from Guido, however, that he would take the post. And Hector Gomez Machado, who heads Frondizi's Intransigent Radical party in the Chamber of Deputies, said he would not.

No Pay Hike Believed In Agreement

Non-Inflationary Contract Includes 'Fringe Benefits'

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Top-level steel negotiators reportedly have reached broad agreement on a non-inflationary labor contract for the steel industry.

Reliable Washington sources said the chief bargainers for the union and the major steel firms reached agreement on a two-year contract Wednesday. The United Steelworkers' Union international executive board and international wage policy committee have been summoned to meet here next Saturday. Union law requires that contract proposals be ratified by the wage policy committee.

The union's 11 company negotiating committees will meet Sunday.

As currently described, the new pact appears to meet President Kennedy's call for an early settlement, without a strike, and without inflationary provisions.

Coming three months ahead of the June 30 expiration date of existing contracts, the reported agreement would head off both a steel strike and a potentially dangerous rush to stockpile steel against the possibility of such a strike.

The agreement is said to pass up an immediate wage increase from the present average of $3.28 an hour paid to some 430,000 basic steelworkers. But it reportedly provides for about 10 cents an hour in fringe benefits—vacation, pension, and unemployment provisions.

The contract could be reopened, it is reported, for wage increase negotiations at the end of its first year.

The settlement terms were said to include improved seniority and grievance procedures and new authority for a joint continuing industry-union human relations committee, expected to ease the eventual reopening of wage talks.

Chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper of the U.S. Steel Corp. told a press conference after Wednesday's talks here that the negotiators have "defined the outline of the area" of possible agreement, and that much negotiating work remained to be done.

USW President David J. McDonald did not say whether the union's wage policy committee will be asked to vote on a proposal. He said only that the committee was summoned to bring it up to date on the bargaining.

Cooper and McDonald returned to the table for a 2-hour, 45-minute night meeting ending shortly before last midnight, but neither side had any comment after the session.

Formal negotiations began Feb. 14, collapsed March 2, then resumed March 14 at the request of President Kennedy. Both sides have said they planned to work for an early settlement.

When the talks broke down, the industry was reportedly offering a two-year package including a 6 to 8-cents-an-hour wage hike, while the union was holding out for 10 cents.

Tax Revision Bill Plugged By President

Says If GOP Kills Plan It Will Be Blow To Economy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today that if Republicans succeed in killing the administration's tax revision plan it will be a blow to the nation's economy.

He told his news conference he has "great difficulty in understanding the position of any political party that makes it a political objective to defeat this bill."

The President said that if the effort to kill the bill succeeds it will wipe out the hope of stimulating business investment, cost the country $600 million in taxes which now go uncollected on income from dividends and interest, and damage the administration's program for economic growth and increased national production.

Kennedy said everyone who wants this country to grow and provide new jobs should support the bill. It would, he said, close many tax loopholes that now exist.

House Republicans are driving to knock out of the bill tax incentives for business that would deprive the government of $1.2 billion in revenue it now receives. They also are maneuvering to defeat a proposed withholding tax on dividends and interest that would bring in an extra $650 million a year.

The presidential argument for the tax bill shared the news conference spotlight with Kennedy's announcement that Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Whittaker is retiring for reasons of ill health.

His retirement takes effect April 1. He will be eligible for half-pay on his $35,000 yearly salary.

Kennedy said nothing about a successor.

In a house-to-house search they arrested some 3,000 persons, mostly youths and men between 16 and 40, and seized more than 1,000 arms of all kinds and large quantities of munitions and explosives.

The streets of Bab el Oued were littered with garbage because Moslem garbage men had refused to enter the hostile quarter. Scores of automobiles were riddled by bullets and one had been flattened by a tank.

Many shops reopened. Shopkeepers surveyed broken plate glass windows and other wreckage left by the battle. Many walls were still smeared with Secret Army slogans calling for a French Algeria and praising the Secret Army's fugitive chief, ex-Gen. Raoul Salan.

French flags draped in black hung from many balconies. The black was a sign of mourning for the 53 European civilians killed Monday in a demonstration organized by the Secret Army in sympathy for the inhabitants of Bab el Oued.

City's Burning Ban To Be Lifted 17 Days

A ban against burning will be lifted for 17 days beginning Friday to allow city residents to rid their yards and gardens of refuse, Fire Chief Charles Bryan said today.

The chief said the residents will be allowed to light outside fires through Sunday, April 15. This will provide three weekends for the homeowners to work in their yards, he said.

Residents were urged to use extreme caution and notify the department by the non-emergency number — FU. 5-1117 — before lighting the refuse.

Firemen then will not be answering calls to neighborhoods where someone spots smoke coming from such a fire.

Grass Fires Continue

State Says Dry Weather Makes Critical Conditions

Grass fires continued to plague district firemen with more calls Wednesday after a series of blazes that began Sunday as the result of the abnormally dry fields and woods and there were more today.

The Ohio Division of Forestry at Columbus said most of Ohio is experiencing critical forest fire conditions and O. A. Alderman, chief, urged everyone to be extremely cautious during the emergency.

He said conditions have worsened and "may become more critical before they improve."

Firemen hoped the forecast of a few showers this afternoon and tonight and cooler weather Friday may ease the situation but the state official said only a general rain of some duration will improve the outlook.

A forecast of much warmer temperatures — 68 to 74 today—with some wind, kept firemen on the alert.

City firemen extinguished a grass fire Wednesday at 1:18 p.m. at the home of Frank Posey of Carroll Ln. Papers being burned in a steel barrel blew out, igniting the grass, firemen said.

Two acres were burned over on the farm of John Baker on Route 39 near Highlandtown Wednesday evening. The Highlandtown volunteer department was notified of the blaze at 5 p. m. Twenty men responded.

A brush and grass fire at 1:40 p.m. in Fairfield Towhship burned off over 100 acres from Al's Lake northwest to the Midway Grange Hall.

Lisbon firemen assisted Columbiana firemen who asked help.

The fire spread over three farms and a number of buildings were in danger for a time.

At 5:20 p.m. Lisbon firemen were called to Saltwell Rd., where Mrs. John Marshalek was burning off grass on her land for which she had a permit. Neighbors had the fire under control and firemen returned to the station.

Three acres of grass and woods were burned near Amsterdam, four acres of woods on Flagpole Hill along Route 7 near the intersection of Route 123, and considerable acreage in Highland Creek Township north of Steubenville in other blazes.

4,094 Forms Sent For New Tax Payment

May 15 Deadline For First Returns From Individuals

The city today mailed report forms to 4,094 persons required to file individual returns under the new city income tax law, principally those whose wages are not subject to withholding by employers.

D. G. Wilkinson, city tax commissioner, pointed out the first individual payments are due by May 15, covering earnings and other income in March and April. The tax of 80 cents per $100 went into effect March 2.

Wilkinson pointed out today's mailing was addressed principally to persons who reside in East Liverpool but are employed outside the city. In such circumstances, employers are not required to withhold the tax from wages.

Individual returns also are required of employes of state and federal agencies and persons who have income of $100 a month or more from rental property, Wilkinson added.

Persons whose entire income is subject to withholding at the source are not required to file reports. The report filed by employers when paying the tax to the city obviates the need for individual returns.

Wilkinson also issued a reminder that final individuals returns are due by April 15 under the 1961 tax law that was repealed at the November general election. Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper said Wednesday he expects to file charges next week in Municipal Court against persons who failed to comply with the 1961 ordinance.

The tax office in the basement of City Hall is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and from 8:30 a.m. until noon on Saturdays. The personnel will assist in figuring the amount of taxes due and filing the forms, Wilkinson said.

Explosion Claims One, 2 Others Suffer Burns

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio — Woodford Rowan, 35, of Fairmont, W. Va., one of three construction workers burned Wednesday in an explosion at Hopedale, died today in a Steubenville hospital.

Rowan, Thomas Summers, 36, of Baxter, W. Va., and Charles Tucker, 45, of Fairmont, received burns on their face, abdomen and hands. Summers was in critical condition. Tucker was fair.

Employes of the Engineers Construction Co. of Fairmont, they were helping build a silo at the Y. & O. No. 2 mine at Hopedale when coal dust was ignited and the explosion followed.

Voter Signup Lists 10,071 For Primary

East Liverpool has 10,071 voters qualified for the May 8 primary elections, the County Election Board said today after ringing down the curtain Wednesday night on its semi-annual registration campaign.

Although 169 had qualified since Jan. 1, there was a net gain of only 75 in the registration list, the Election Board pointed out.

East Liverpool had 9,996 qualified electors on Jan. 1 after the annual year-end registration check to remove the names of those who had failed to vote in the preceding two years. The 169 names added between Jan. 1 and yesterday were offset by 94 others

OGILVIE'S

Duffy's Stand Stalls Council Fund Action

if Murray indicates in the meantime that he also will vote "yes." In that way, six favorable votes would be assured to pass the ordinance immediately.

Vote Is Unprecedented

Sample said he made a search of old Council records and could find no prior instance of a member voting against the annual appropriation measure.

Duffy opened up the debate as soon as the fiscal measure was presented.

He called for elimination of these jobs: The mayor's clerk, $3,100; the assistant city solicitor, $2,200; an assistant in the engineer's office, $4,000; a sewer inspector, $4,600; the four "Meter Maids," paid a total of $12,300, and the income tax commissioner, paid about $5,200.

The "Meter Maid's" job of checking parking meters could be turned over to the police department, Duffy said. Treasurer Bert Dawson could supervise the income tax office clerical help, eliminating the need for Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson, he added.

Duffy also questioned the appropriation of $1,500 from garbage department funds to help pay the salary of the clerk in the mayor's office. He said the garbage funds come from a levy voted by the people for refuse and trash collections and should be used only for that purpose.

"There are a few other things that could be done around City Hall" to accomplish an overall saving of $40,000 a year, Duffy declared.

"YOU SHOULD SPEND the money wisely, especially when it's taken off the people against their will," Duffy said, in a reference to a newly-enacted income tax law. "They're still angry about it. You should save money—not throw it away. I will vote against this ordinance all the way."

Willshaw, replying to Duffy, declared that city jobs cannot be eliminated by mere objections on the Council floor. They are established by ordinance and can only be eliminated in the same manner, he explained. As long as the jobs remain legally-constituted, the finance committee is required by law to provide funds for the salaries, he added.

"I never heard you move to eliminate any of these jobs," he told Duffy. "Until they are eliminated, it is the finance committee's duty to appropriate money for the salaries."

—:—

"EVERY TIME A committee report is turned in, one man dissents," Sample declared. "Do you think there are six men here trying to waste the people's money? Certainly not!"

Then Sample hurled his copy of the appropriation ordiance on the desk and in a near-shout continued: "You sat there time after time and said nothing!"

"It's easy to come in here and say 'yes' and go along with the old customs," Duffy replied. "That's what got the city in the trouble it's in today."

"When we discussed the income tax, Mr. Duffy said it should be put to a vote of the people," Welch said. "He's ignorant of the facts—the only time it can be submitted to a vote by Council action is when it's for one per cent or more."

Then Welch made a detailed explanation of the Ohio law on initiative and referendum procedure.

Continuing, he said: "Mr. Duffy, according to the letters to the editor, is the great white father."

—:—

"REFRAIN FROM personalities, please," President Charles N. Edwards interrupted.

"This is the first time anyone ever objected to an annual appropriation ordinance," Welch continued. "We're not going to have special meetings on this. We will have it up on April 2 and again on April 16 and the employes may have to wait to get paid."

Massey, next to speak, said Duffy might not have understood the procedure that would be necessary to bring the question of job abolishment to the floor. After explaining the finance committee's position again, he said that if Duffy seeks to abolish jobs, he should make a motion at the next regular meeting.

"Then the president can appoint a committee to investigate," Massey said. "We all want to cut corners. It will take $75,000 to $80,000 of the income tax money to operate the city as it has been in the past, without a cent of that money going for a street program."

"WE HAVE LAWS and we have to adhere to them," Massey continued. "Personally, I would like to see you vote for this ordinance. Then let's start cutting. Just because the money is appropriated, it doesn't mean the money will be spent. If the jobs are eliminated, it will go back to the general fund."

Massey also declared that Duffy was inconsistent in voting March 19 for legislation allowing the administration to borrow money against tax receipts to meet the March 20 payroll "for these same people."

"I disagree with Duffy when he says the money is being spent foolishly and thrown away," Berg declared. Elimination of jobs would be "a backward step," he said.

Taking the floor again, Duffy asserted that the former Council did not appropriate any money for two years to finance Civil Service Commission operations.

Willshaw showed him a copy of the 1961 appropriation, which provided $900.

"You can't believe hearsay," he commented.

"I'M SORRY MR. Duffy has taken the position he has," Willshaw continued. "The finance committee would have welcomed his help in drafting the ordinance. Anytime you want to come to one of its meetings, you are welcome as the flowers in May."

That ended the debate, which extended until a few minutes after midnight.

Before the appropriation ordinance was read, Willshaw issued a brief explanation of the figures, which in most cases are virtually unchanged from the 1961 appropriation.

The net difference of $33,850 between the 1962 and 1961 ordinances is accounted for principally by debt requirements, he explained.

In 1961, the city spent $21,882 to pay principal and interest on bonds, but this year $40,824 will be required, Willshaw said, pointing out the increase is $28,942.

—:—

DEBT REQUIREMENTS rose because $166,000 in bonds were issued in 1961, principally to pay the city's share of the California Hollow-West End Freeway, he said. The increase in debt requirements represents mainly the principal and interest due this year on the freeway bonds, he said.

Other than the debt requirement, there is a net difference of only $4,818 between last year's appropriation and the current measure, Willshaw said.

The appropriation provides $5,000 that will be used to acquire two new cruisers for the police department, either through leasing or outright purchase. Two old debts of the incinerator department will be retired—$11,601 due on a bulldozer and $6,722 borrowed to buy a "packer" body for a new garbage truck.

The appropriation provides $4,400 for repayment to the federal government of a grant for repair of flood damage to the River Rd. The government made a grant of more than $8,000, then later withdrew it, claiming the city had not performed the work within the deadline specified. The $4,400 represents 11 monthly installments of $400 that will be repaid this year.

Another $2,000 is provided for repayment of a federal loan advanced about 15 years ago for planning a series of street projects.

OF THE APPROXIMATELY $150,000 that a newly-enacted city income tax is scheduled to produce, the ordinance allocates $131,689.

It provides $20,358 for operation of the tax office. Another $6,000 item is ear-marked for transfer to the street department fund for purchase of two new trucks.

The ordinance provides $27,885 will be transferred from anticipated income tax receipts to pay overdrafts and past-due bills carried over from 1961.

Another $77,448 is ear-marked for transfer to the general fund for use in everyday operating expenses, buttressing the amounts from normal sources—principally real estate taxes.

After the ordinance was read, Welch moved for immediate passage, seconded by Berg.

Then Sample commented that the finance committee, of which he is a member, "worked eight nights and two afternoons" in drafting the ordinance.

—:—

EDWARDS ASSERTED it was "not my purpose to tell anyone how to vote," but he added that city paydays might be missed if the ordinance was not passed.

He pointed out that there was "no request for reduction of the figures, only remarks on eliminating jobs."

"As Councilman Massey has pointed out, jobs can be eliminated only by legislation and the finance committee is required to appropriate some money for each job," the president continued.

"If the ordinance is passed under suspension of rules, the ordinance goes into immediate effect and all the city's bills will be taken care of," he said. "If it is not passed in that manner, it will require two more readings. When Council will hold those meetings, I don't know.

"But if there are no special meetings, it would be May before any city employe could be paid. It seems to me it would be bad to hold up the pay of so many to retaliate against a few whose jobs are sought to be eliminated."

Then he put the motion for immediate passage to a vote, resulting in the 5-1 split. Council adjourned a moment later.

THE OVERALL appropriation for the general fund is $492,350, up $4,476 from the $487,874 allocated for 1961.

The general fund foots the bill for many of the municipal operations, including all City Hall offices, the fire and police departments, Municipal Court, the Health Department and street lighting.

For the general operation of City Hall offices, the 1962 appropriation provides $79,953, a drop of $1,088 from the $81,041 set up last year.

The safety fund, providing mainly for the fire and police departments, was allocated $313,001 for 1962, an increase of $2,624 from 1961's $310,377.

The Health Department's appropriation is unchanged at $25,065.

—:—

IN THE SERVICE fund, the 1962 appropriation provides $74,330, an increase of $2,940 from the $71,390 allocated in 1961. The change is accounted for by a $2,400 gain in the cost of street lighting—from $34,000 last year to $36,400 for this year.

The service fund also provides for operation of the city engineer's office ($10,400) and Thompson Park's administration and operation, ($10,900).

The 1962 appropriation sets up $228,646 for the water department, a gain of $27,963 from the $200,683 in 1961. It provides $168,407 for the sewage treatment department, off $12,134 from the $180,541 set up last year.

The incinerator department has $113,857 appropriation for 1962, down $3,390 from the $117,247 set up last year. A voted 2½-mill levy provides the funds for the incinerator operation.

THE STREET department's appropriation for 1962 is set at $115,508, down $1,032 from the $116,540 set up in 1961. The city's share of gasoline taxes and auto license revenues collected by the state pays for operation of the street department.

The "state highway improvement fund," a percentage of the money received for street purposes, totals $10,000 in 1962, up $1,331 from the $8,669 listed in 1961. The state requires municipalities to spend about 7 per cent of the gasoline and auto license revenues on state highways through the city.

Allocations for fire and police pension funds are set at $12,183 each in 1962, up $46 from the $12,139 each received last year.

THE APPROPRIATION provides $68,335 for poor relief in 1962, a boost of $3,441 from the $64,894 allocated last year.

It sets up $28,432 for the City Hospital fund for 1962, a decrease of $3,939 from the $32,371 provided in 1961. The hospital fund is made solely of a voted three-quarter mill levy. It amounts to a bookkeeping transaction for the city, which receives the funds from the county auditor's office at Lisbon and then transfers them to the credit of the hospital.

Here are major allocations within the general fund for 1962, showing appropriations for the same purposes last year in parentheses:

Council, $8,475 ($7,750); Council clerk, $1,880 ($1,830); mayor, $7,248 ($6,782); auditor, $11,832 ($11,682); treasurer, $2,020 ($1,720); solicitor, $8,578 ($8,578); legal advertising, $1,000 ($1,000); Municipal Court, $8,700 ($9,650); Municipal Court clerk, $10,470 ($10,470); Civil Service Commission, $1,000 ($900), and miscellaneous, $13,900 ($15,928).

ALLOCATIONS IN the safety fund, compared with 1961, are: General administration, $4,788 ($4,848); police department, $136,926 ($135,284); fire department, $148,338 ($147,810); "Meter Maids," $13,150 ($13,150); parking meters, $6,456 ($6,440); dog warden, $1,600 ($1,500), and burials of indigent, $750, ($450).

A breakdown of the water department allocations shows: Office, $24,488 ($25,488); supply, $5,900 ($5,900); filtration, $41,100 ($40,000); pumping, $43,900 ($48,000); distribution, $54,308 ($48,808); extraordinary purposes, $28,600 ($11,337), and transfers, $28,250, ($29,650).

Duffy's Stand Stalls Council Fund Action

if Murray indicates in the meantime that he also will vote "yes." In that way, six favorable votes would be assured to pass the ordinance immediately.

Vote Is Unprecedented

Sample said he made a search of old Council records and could find no prior instance of a member voting against the annual appropriation measure.

Duffy opened up the debate as soon as the fiscal measure was presented.

He called for elimination of these jobs: The mayor's clerk, $3,100; the assistant city solicitor, $2,200; an assistant in the engineer's office, $4,000; a sewer inspector, $4,600; the four "Meter Maids," paid a total of $12,300, and the income tax commissioner, paid about $5,200.

The "Meter Maid's" job of checking parking meters could be turned over to the police department, Duffy said. Treasurer Bert Dawson could supervise the income tax office clerical help, eliminating the need for Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson, he added.

Duffy also questioned the appropriation of $1,500 from garbage department funds to help pay the salary of the clerk in the mayor's office. He said the garbage funds come from a levy voted by the people for refuse and trash collections and should be used only for that purpose.

"There are a few other things that could be done around City Hall" to accomplish an overall saving of $40,000 a year, Duffy declared.

—:—

"YOU SHOULD SPEND the money wisely, especially when it's taken off the people against their will," Duffy said, in a reference to a newly-enacted income tax law. "They're still angry about it. You should save money—not throw it away. I will vote against this ordinance all the way."

Willshaw, replying to Duffy, declared that city jobs cannot be eliminated by mere objections on the Council floor. They are established by ordinance and can only be eliminated in the same manner, he explained. As long as the jobs remain legally-constituted, the finance committee is required by law to provide funds for the salaries, he added.

"I never heard you move to eliminate any of these jobs," he told Duffy. "Until they are eliminated, it is the finance committee's duty to appropriate money for the salaries."

—:—

"EVERY TIME A committee report is turned in, one man dissents," Sample declared. "Do you think there are six men here trying to waste the people's money? Certainly not!"

Then Sample hurled his copy of the appropriation ordiance on the desk and in a near-shout continued: "You sat there time after time and said nothing!"

"It's easy to come in here and say 'yes' and go along with the old customs," Duffy replied. "That's what got the city in the trouble it's in today."

"When we discussed the income tax, Mr. Duffy said it should be put to a vote of the people," Welch said. "He's ignorant of the facts—the only time it can be submitted to a vote by Council action is when it's for one per cent or more."

Then Welch made a detailed explanation of the Ohio law on initiative and referendum procedure.

Continuing, he said: "Mr. Duffy, according to the letters to the editor, is the great white father."

—:—

"REFRAIN FROM personalities, please," President Charles N. Edwards interrupted.

"This is the first time anyone ever objected to an annual appropriation ordinance," Welch continued. "We're not going to have special meetings on this. We will have it up on April 2 and again on April 16 and the employes may have to wait to get paid."

Massey, next to speak, said Duffy might not have understood the procedure that would be necessary to bring the question of job abolishment to the floor. After explaining the finance committee's position again, he said that if Duffy seeks to abolish jobs, he should make a motion at the next regular meeting.

"Then the president can appoint a committee to investigate," Massey said. "We all want to cut corners. It will take $75,000 to $80,000 of the income tax money to operate the city as it has been in the past, without a cent of that money going for a street program."

—:—

"WE HAVE LAWS and we have to adhere to them," Massey continued. "Personally, I would like to see you vote for this ordinance. Then let's start cutting. Just because the money is appropriated, it doesn't mean the money will be spent. If the jobs are eliminated, it will go back to the general fund."

Massey also declared that Duffy was inconsistent in voting March 19 for legislation allowing the administration to borrow money against tax receipts to meet the March 20 payroll "for these same people."

"I disagree with Duffy when he says the money is being spent foolishly and thrown away," Berg declared. Elimination of jobs would be "a backward step," he said.

Taking the floor again, Duffy asserted that the former Council did not appropriate any money for two years to finance Civil Service Commission operations.

Willshaw showed him a copy of the 1961 appropriation, which provided $900.

"You can't believe hearsay," he commented.

—:—

"I'M SORRY MR. Duffy has taken the position he has," Willshaw continued. "The finance committee would have welcomed his help in drafting the ordinance. Anytime you want to come to one of its meetings, you are welcome as the flowers in May."

That ended the debate, which extended until a few minutes after midnight.

Before the appropriation ordinance was read, Willshaw issued a brief explanation of the figures, which in most cases are virtually unchanged from the 1961 appropriation.

The net difference of $33,850 between the 1962 and 1961 ordinances is accounted for principally by debt requirements, he explained.

In 1961, the city spent $21,882 to pay principal and interest on bonds, but this year $40,824 will be required, Willshaw said, pointing out the increase is $28,942.

—:—

DEBT REQUIREMENTS rose because $166,000 in bonds were issued in 1961, principally to pay the city's share of the California Hollow-West End Freeway, he said. The increase in debt requirements represents mainly the principal and interest due this year on the freeway bonds, he said.

Other than the debt requirement, there is a net difference of only $4,818 between last year's appropriation and the current measure, Willshaw said.

The appropriation provides $5,000 that will be used to acquire two new cruisers for the police department, either through leasing or outright purchase. Two old debts of the incinerator department will be retired—$11,601 due on a bulldozer and $6,722 borrowed to buy a "packer" body for a new garbage truck.

The appropriation provides $4,400 for repayment to the federal government of a grant for repair of flood damage to the River Rd. The government made a grant of more than $8,000, then later withdrew it, claiming the city had not performed the work within the deadline specified. The $4,400 represents 11 monthly installments of $400 that will be repaid this year.

Another $2,000 is provided for repayment of a federal loan advanced about 15 years ago for planning a series of street projects.

—:—

OF THE APPROXIMATELY $150,000 that a newly-enacted city income tax is scheduled to produce, the ordinance allocates $131,689.

It provides $20,358 for operation of the tax office. Another $6,000 item is ear-marked for transfer to the street department fund for purchase of two new trucks.

The ordinance provides $27,885 will be transferred from anticipated income tax receipts to pay overdrafts and past-due bills carried over from 1961.

Another $77,448 is ear-marked for transfer to the general fund for use in everyday operating expenses, buttressing the amounts from normal sources—principally real estate taxes.

After the ordinance was read, Welch moved for immediate passage, seconded by Berg.

Then Sample commented that the finance committee, of which he is a member, "worked eight nights and two afternoons" in drafting the ordinance.

—:—

EDWARDS ASSERTED it was "not my purpose to tell anyone how to vote," but he added that city paydays might be missed if the ordinance was not passed.

He pointed out that there was "no request for reduction of the figures, only remarks on eliminating jobs."

"As Councilman Massey has pointed out, jobs can be eliminated only by legislation and the finance committee is required to appropriate some money for each job," the president continued.

"If the ordinance is passed under suspension of rules, the ordinance goes into immediate effect and all the city's bills will be taken care of," he said. "If it is not passed in that manner, it will require two more readings. When Council will hold those meetings, I don't know.

"But if there are no special meetings, it would be May before any city employe could be paid. It seems to me it would be bad to hold up the pay of so many to retaliate against a few whose jobs are sought to be eliminated."

Then he put the motion for immediate passage to a vote, resulting in the 5-1 split. Council adjourned a moment later.

—:—

THE OVERALL appropriation for the general fund is $492,350, up $4,476 from the $487,874 allocated for 1961.

The general fund foots the bill for many of the municipal operations, including all City Hall offices, the fire and police departments, Municipal Court, the Health Department and street lighting.

For the general operation of City Hall offices, the 1962 appropriation provides $79,953, a drop of $1,088 from the $81,041 set up last year.

The safety fund, providing mainly for the fire and police departments, was allocated $313,001 for 1962, an increase of $2,624 from 1961's $310,377.

The Health Department's appropriation is unchanged at $25,065.

—:—

IN THE SERVICE fund, the 1962 appropriation provides $74,330, an increase of $2,940 from the $71,390 allocated in 1961. The change is accounted for by a $2,400 gain in the cost of street lighting—from $34,000 last year to $36,400 for this year.

The service fund also provides for operation of the city engineer's office ($10,400) and Thompson Park's administration and operation, ($10,900).

The 1962 appropriation sets up $228,646 for the water department, a gain of $27,963 from the $200,683 in 1961. It provides $168,407 for the sewage treatment department, off $12,134 from the $180,541 set up last year.

The incinerator department has $113,857 appropriation for 1962, down $3,390 from the $117,247 set up last year. A voted 2½-mill levy provides the funds for the incinerator operation.

—:—

THE STREET department's appropriation for 1962 is set at $115,508, down $1,032 from the $116,540 set up in 1961. The city's share of gasoline taxes and auto license revenues collected by the state pays for operation of the street department.

The "state highway improvement fund," a percentage of the money received for street purposes, totals $10,000 in 1962, up $1,331 from the $8,669 listed in 1961. The state requires municipalities to spend about 7 per cent of the gasoline and auto license revenues on state highways through the city.

Allocations for fire and police pension funds are set at $12,183 each in 1962, up $46 from the $12,139 each received last year.

THE APPROPRIATION provides $68,335 for poor relief in 1962, a boost of $3,441 from the $64,894 allocated last year.

It sets up $28,432 for the City Hospital fund for 1962, a decrease of $3,939 from the $32,371 provided in 1961. The hospital fund is made solely of a voted three-quarter mill levy. It amounts to a bookkeeping transaction for the city, which receives the funds from the county auditor's office at Lisbon and then transfers them to the credit of the hospital.

Here are major allocations within the general fund for 1962, showing appropriations for the same purposes last year in parentheses:

Council, $8,475 ($7,750); Council clerk, $1,880 ($1,830); mayor, $7,248 ($6,782); auditor, $11,832 ($11,682); treasurer, $2,020 ($1,720); solicitor, $8,578 ($8,578); legal advertising, $1,000 ($1,000); Municipal Court, $8,700 ($9,650); Municipal Court clerk, $10,470 ($10,470); Civil Service Commission, $1,000 ($900), and miscellaneous, $13,900 ($15,928).

ALLOCATIONS IN the safety fund, compared with 1961, are: General administration, $4,788 ($4,848); police department, $136,926 ($135,284); fire department, $148,336 ($147,810); "Meter Maids," $13,150 ($13,150); parking meters, $8,456 ($8,440); dog warden, $1,600 ($1,500), and burials of indigent, $750, ($450).

A breakdown of the water department allocations shows: Office, $24,488 ($25,488); supply, $5,900 ($5,900); filtration, $41,100 ($40,000); pumping, $45,900 ($46,000); distribution, $54,308 ($48,808); extraordinary purposes, $28,600 ($11,337), and transfers, $28,250, ($29,650).

Atty. Barry Dickson of East Palestine and Atty. George Bookwalter and Atty. Leo Keating of Trumbull County represent Lotze.

Recession Prevention Proposed

President Kennedy's request for $600 million now and a prospect of $2 billion later to beef up employment in 958 localities where unemployment is a third higher than the national average is recession prevention.

As such it will be shunned by those members of Congress who would rather lose their committee assignments than admit there is need for recession prevention. But it will be taken to their bosoms by other representatives and senators, never happier than when they are legislating against gloom and doom.

This is the typical quandary of legislators who are asked to cope with underemployment. They are skittish about coming to grips with the existence of the problem. It is like being asked to acknowledge something unpleasant in order to accomplish something pleasant, unless they are members of the party out of power.

But there is an easy way out of this tight spot if legislators would look for it as assiduously as they look for silver linings and gloom and doom. It is to find a way to shift into the military budget whatever needs to be done to beef up employment in areas that are not cleaning up on defense contracts.

THE DEFENSE program absorbs about 10 per cent of the nation's total production of goods and services and employs about 10 per cent of the labor force, taking into account the armed services. Kansas, Washington, New Mexico, California, Connecticut, Arizona and Utah depend on military procurement for more than 20 per cent of their manufacturing employment. Some communities owe more than half their jobs to military procurement.

As former President Eisenhower warned in his farewell address, the vested interest of supplies and their employes in military procurement has given rise to the most powerful lobby that ever existed. It is able to squeeze better than $50 billion a year out of Congress without causing a squeal.

Therefore, the thing to do is to put into the military budget everything that can be put into it and take Congress off the spot. Though not a brand new idea, the potentialities of this idea never have been used to the limit.

IT WOULD be almost equally handy if recession prevention could be included in foreign aid, but that would be stretching a point.

Even though much foreign aid is a subsidized export market for U.S. production, it would be next to impossible to justify including public works project in a foreign aid bill.

It would be easier to call it a new highway, a defense dredging department or a security measure and add it to military spending.

Algerian Moslems Can Wait

Not the least noteworthy thing in news dispatches from Algeria is the evidence that the Moslem majority, whose independence is at stake, are showing incredibly good discipline in the face of extreme provocation.

They are taking their leaders' word for it that the cruel strategy of European Algerians is to commit so many atrocities against them they will rise in fury to drive all white men out of Algeria.

This would put them in conflict with the French army. It would destroy their truce with the French government, because they would be in a state of insurrection against French sovereignty.

They are heeding their leaders' warnings about this danger. They are heeding warnings, too, about being taken in by the apparent friendliness of the Soviet Union, which granted them diplomatic recognition before they had taken the first step into nationhood.

Nothing has been provided yet. Further devilments and provocations will be concoted to darken the promise of Algerian sovereignty. One or more of these may so infuriate the Moslems they will turn against their persecutors.

But it is ironic that it's Moslems are able to discipline themselves at the climax of their long struggle against French rule, while white Frenchmen are killing one another over an issue that has been settled, as far as the Moslems and the government of the French Republic are concerned.

These are the same "undisciplined" people whose violence touched off the long Algerian war. As in the Congo, these are the supposedly irresponsible "natives" who, in a showdown, are being more responsible than the people who once ruled over them as their superiors.

Cannibalism Among Communists

If everything is as it is reported to be and a Cuban Communist named Anibal Escalante has fled to save himself from Fidel Castro, the situation in Cuba must be called normal.

Under the one-party system of Moscow-based communism, there still are two opinions. There always are two opinions, no matter what the system.

In a two-party system, this is taken for granted. One party attacks the other party's opinion as if the thing were a game. The real bitterness is saved for fights inside the parties, where it's a battle for survival.

Inside the Communist party, every difference of opinion is a matter of survival; there is nowhere else to go, nothing else to do if you lose. Thus, the cannibalism among Communist party zealots. Thus the gnawing fear lest some individual get into a position of personal influence that would enable him to build up a personality cult that would be more powerful than party doctrine.

The fear is not peculiar to members of the Communist party; politicians everywhere are concerned with it and all politicians hope to become leaders of personality cults. But only in absolutist societies can one man run another to ground. Elsewhere he can disagree, he can belittle, he can insult, he can ridicule but he cannot destroy.

Anibal Escalante has left Cuba. All well and good. If he were on top, Fidel Castro would have to leave Cuba. There is no place for a difference of opinion in countries where only one opinion is permitted to be heard.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Some states have made safety belts in autos compulsory, with New York the latest to decide man's life is worth saving, even if it is a do-it yourself job.

The way folks are driving autos today it is plain that belts should have been put around them years ago.

They are more important than "cheesecake," fancy radiator caps, electric windows and deluxe ashtrays.

Anybody who respects human life will have to admit belts should have been compulsory on the first autos ever built instead of waiting a half century.

Cocky, careless and arrogant as a man appears at the wheel of auto, he seems unable to keep himself inside the car for sure without being strapped or riveted in.

In modern traffic he would be safer riding a broom and crying "Look, mom; no hands!"

Millions of cars are being driven by half wits, dope addicts, showoffs and people who have never bothered to learn the cardinal rules of safety.

Some of them are so irresponsible they should wear belts at cocktail parties. New York law requires belts only on people in front seats. This is curious unless those in rear seat are supposed to be acrobats and specialists on "trampolines."

Lack of belts in autos has been largely due to their unpopularity. Auto makers have behaved curiously when they changed the bumper designs every season to please human eye but failed to go all out to save human necks.

Public, however, has been guilty through aversion to this safety device. It makes no sense for a driver meeting with close calls every hour on the road, to be choosey about belt. It's like a balloonist balking at a parachute.

Auto owners know they are in peril, but don't want to feel conscious of it. Why belts in airplane and not in autos? Passengers in 2,000 mile journey are comparatively safe, but a man in auto doing 15 yards between his garage and first road turn is putting his life up for grabs.

Safety belts have been optional car equipment for several years, but this is like making net under a trapeze artist subject to a Gallup poll.

Gov. Rockefeller knows value of safety belts. He has been through enough to think they should be worn by politicians while reading opposition editorials. (Women are reported against safety belts. There are times when a girl wants to get out of a car fast.)

WHY REVIEW READERS GO MAD

" 'I Can Get It For You Wholesale' struck me as more cynical than the novel. Now and then there is a lift from a song and dance but in the main the characters are down, down, down." — John Chapman.

"It generates a lot of momentum and is spirited." — Howard Taubman.

"Momma, Momma, Momma, what a good solid show 'I Can Get It For You Wholesale' is!" — Walter Kerr.

"If this show doesn't charm the living daylights out of New York nothing will." — Norman Nadel.

"It could have been called 'How To Succeed Without Being Very Honest or Very Amusing.' " — John McClain.

Indiana court ruled killing time is part of a truckman's job. Yerronor, it's part of the job all over. Probably the man never lived who didn't kill time now and then but he felt a little ashamed to do it openly. Today it's all out in the open and there are fields where men seem to be afraid to be caught at work.

Grace Kelly announces all money from her movie will go to charity. This is the first indication Alfred Hitchcock, bound to make a fortune, was having a tough time surviving.

The princess emphasizes children's charity, which is swell. But has anybody given a thought to the millions of kids who will see her portraying a thief, with all the sensation-seeking twists typical of a Hitchcock thriller?

Roger Stevens, Broadway play producer, who has poured millions into remodeling New Haven, Conn., tells city officials in critical mood that he will be lucky if he gets his money back. "Rewriting," so to speak, a city, is tough enough without having to read dramatic reviews by a board of aldermen.

Quite A Challenge

Kennedy Due New Labor Peace Plan

By Victor Riesel

On the land, on the sea, in the skies—strikes are in the troubled air. Ships, tugs, planes, docks, harbors, rails, missile plants, rocket sites, aircraft plants and a world of computors in a computed world have labor pains.

Victor Riesel

Not for nothing has the President been asking his experts for a soothing strike formula. Now it is ready in a confidential document. It will be handed to him in April.

It may work. If it does, something new will have been added to the Potomac patter—something called the Critical Disputes Board. A lot of very bright labor and management chiefs—the President's advisers—think it will succeed. We'll soon know.

This document is based on the non-radical middle-of-the-road belief that labor leaders and management executives have the right to argue privately as much as they want—up to a point, a point of peril to the nation.

The President will have around him a group of men with extra-sensory perception. Their antennae will tell them when these collective bargainning arguments become serious.

THIS THEY WILL impart to President Kennedy early in the conflict. He'll name a few of them, tell them to get into the debate months before the danger point—the expiration of the contract.

Under the new plan the board will argue, plead, cajole, explore, push a little, take the parties out to private talks, and maybe a drink or two. But this is not yet the Critical Disputes Board.

The first board will simply try to convince the opponents not to get to that moment of public crisis when newsmen begin their harrowing reports of what might happen, and the citizenry, the executives and the rank and file read them and become agitated.

The first board, which is really running interference for the President and Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg, next will have to decide if they ought to disturb the White House. They then will report three matters. One, both sides are stubborn. Two, if both sides stick to their fixed positions there will be a strike. Three, if there is a strike, there will be an emergency or threat to the country's welfare—or it will be tough but not a national emergency.

THUS THE PRESIDENT does not have to decide for himself whether to move in. If this front running bloc says there will be a national emergency he moves automatically.

At the present he merely gets a set of facts. No one officially says there is a crisis. Under the new plan, having been told the national interest will be jeopardized, he simply issues an order telling the men not to strike, or orders them back to work if they have jumped the gun and walked out.

He would not need to go to the federal courts. He would tell them to work and bargain again for 80 days.

Then he appoints a Critical Dispute Board. It now sits officially with the embattled ones. The board members are hep because they are virtually the same men who were on the unofficial front runner earlier in the crisis.

The Critical Disputes Board will have new powers. It will not only be fact finding, it will have the power to mediate, argue, cajole and push real hard.

Then, if it has failed to convince the feudists to settle, it can make wage and price recommendations to the President. And make them out loud. Perhaps at the White House, perhaps in Mr. Kennedy's presence. But real loud.

Since the Critical Disputes Board will have labor as well as public and management men on it, their stentorian suggestions will not be easily ignored by the disputed forces.

SINCE ANYTHING can happen in America and usually does, both sides can rebuff the President and the Critical Disputes Board. This now leaves it up to the President.

If a strike breaks out again, Mr. Kennedy would be empowered to go to Congress for a new law. He would not have to wait for strikers to ballot or for any new offers and any new agruments. He can march right up the Hill.

At this point, the odds are you would have history repeat itself. Here is a story that has never been told. During the bitter 1950 battle between John Lewis' miners and the coal industry, Harry Truman became furious. I recall that he and his mediation chief, the Solomon-like David Cole, got up a pretty tough proposed law. Mr. Cole took a draft over to John Lewis.

"Old Eyebrows" read it. He did not like what he saw—for the new law would make it possible for the government to seize the pits and operate them until the crisis ended. But with no change in wages, hours, etc.

The management people found distinctly distasteful the thought of the government operating their mines. Within two days that crisis ended. There has been peace in the industry ever since.

The formula may yet work. Then we'd have peace at a reasonable price.

Kennedy's Strategy

By David Lawrence

President's Defense Policies Analyzed

Nikita Khrushchev reads everything that President Kennedy says, and vice versa. It may be taken for granted, therefore, that the Soviet premier will analyze carefully a brief statement which the President gave to Stewart Alsop, who made it the theme of a long article he wrote for the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post. The article itself is entitled "Kennedy's Grand Strategy," and the President is quoted as having said:

David Lawrence

"I don't think most Americans realize the way the situation has changed. I don't think many people really understand the change. As late as 1954 the balance in air power, in the nuclear weapons, was all on our side.

"The change began about 1958 or 1959, with the missiles. Now we have got to realize that both sides have these annihilating weapons, and that changes the problem. Of course in some circumstances we must be prepared to use the nuclear weapon at the start, come what may — a clear attack on Western Europe, for example. But what is important is that if you use these weapons you have to control their use. What you need is control, flexibility, a choice."

There follows an explanation of alternative courses that might be pursued by the President. While presumably based on Mr. Kennedy's ideas, it is presented as Mr. Alsop's own analysis. He gives, for instance, this outline of Mr. Kennedy's "grand strategy":

"The aim now is to convince Khrushchev on one point, and leave him uncertain on another. This country must maintain a sufficient margin of superiority in nuclear striking power so that Khrushchev will be certain that, if he strikes first, he will receive a devastating counterblow. But Khrushchev must not be certain that, where its vital interests are threatened, the United States will never strike first. As Kennedy says, 'in some circumstances we might have to take the initiative.' In these ways Khrushchev is to continue to be convinced that 'global thermonuclear war' is something to avoid."

Reporters who asked at the White House on Tuesday for amplification of this were told that it was merely a restatement of the policy of the previous administrations — namely, that if conventional forces became engaged in war, the United States would not hesitate to be the first to use nuclear weapons so as to prevent Soviet forces from overrunning Europe.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY is, therefore, represented as believing that conventional forces must be increased, that nuclear striking power must be maintained at a high level, and that there must be flexibility in American policy if a real crisis builds up.

This also isn't too different from the policy of the Eisenhower administration. In fact, the White House statement says the real change in American policy is "in the strengthening of our defensive alternatives to nuclear warfare."

Thus, there is a bigger emphasis now on conventional forces, such as larger ground armies, and also on the training of guerrilla forces for American expeditions such as now are operating in South Viet Nam. But, in the main, the United States today is depending on its nuclear strength as a deterrent power.

Indeed, the American people have been assured by high officials only this week that the talk during the last presidential campaign about a "missile gap" was largely exaggerated and that America is already sufficiently powerful to make the Soviets realize that a nuclear war would be suicidal.

The Alsop article does indicate clearly that the President has a full appreciation of the worldwide nature of the Communist threat and hopes in various ways to hold it in check, as, for instance, by judicious use of foreign aid and by showing firmness in situations like that which has arisen in Berlin.

WHAT IS SURPRISING, however, is that, in discussing alternative policies, nowhere in the same article on "grand strategy" is there any mention of what the President intends to do in the "cold war" about using two powerful forces — the economic boycott and a direct appeal to the peoples behind the Iron Curtain.

Mr. Kennedy is described as vitally interested in seeing European economic strength developed through the Common Market, and it may be that later on the economic boycott will come up for consideration.

It is unfortunate that the leverage which the free world has today is not being used in the diplomatic relations of the West with the Communist-bloc countries.

It is unfortunate, too, that the United States does not utilize the power of moral force to reach the peoples of the countries where Communist oppression prevails.

If there is anything obvious today, it is that there is little chance of world peace as long as autocracy exists in the Soviet Union and the people there can be victims of a sudden and arbitrary mishandling of nuclear power by the dictatorship in Moscow.

And More Patience . . .

By Truman Twill

The lady wondered why there had been no news about the Rottwollie recently, so we showed her our hand where the pup had left tooth marks on it. It was all in fun.

Other pups we've had finally simmered down and behaved like dogs, but this one keeps on being a pup, though she is passing 65 pounds and still hasn't caught up to her feet. She reminds us of some hyperthyroid stout girls we've known—the kind that could bash up the furniture walking across the room.

Some of this is accounted for by the fact the pup has been raised outside where space is unlimited and everything in existence is for her convenience. Like firewood.

Slabs of firewood began to appear in the side yard. She was playing with firewood in lieu of the toys inside dogs play with. She also pulls off branches of small trees and plays with those.

She drags doormats. The premises are littered with tin cans she has bitten flat. She carries stones in her mouth. Her cat-carrying has slowed down, presumably because of scratches found on her nose. But her cat-chasing has speeded up as she developed speed.

Her attitude toward the Twillery sheep remains to be determined, though on decent days when the sheep have been outside she has shown pleasure in rounding them up and running them into the barn, then sitting in the doorway to keep them from going out.

Lambs intrigue her, but with one exception she has been kept a safe distance away. A ewe with a lamb by her side is no animal to be tempted by a target as easy to hit as a lumbering pup. The exception was an orphan lamb that had to be taken into the house to save it.

She mothered it there as if it were a puppy. Then she tried to play with it as if it were a kitten. Then she tried to manage it as if it were one of the cattle her ancestors were valued for herding. She moved up alongside it and threw the weight of her body into it to make it move where she wanted it to go.

The pup is in that stage of development where the less said about her the better. Her negatives are on the verge of overbalancing her positives. Our children went through this at one time too — an era in which they teetered between juvenile delinquency and adolescent callowness.

On the negative side, the pup digs holes in flowerbeds, makes muddy footprints on the side of the house when she peers in windows, keeps the yard cluttered with wood, piles of excavated dirt and her playthings, including doormats, burlap bags and scraps of milk cartons and tin cans she salvages from the family-owned and operated dump. She finds things to bark at in the middle of the night with a woofer that can wake up the township, she is proud of her sharp white teeth and uses them too much and is as unhandy to have around as an overexuberant pony.

On the positive side, she is pettable and reliable; you always know where she is. She is between your legs when you are walking and hanging over your shoulder when you are trying to do something.

People tell us to be patient; that the pup will settle down. We're being patient and saying as little about the problem as possible, in the hope it will solve itself. One million, 239 thousand, 467 . . .

Recession Prevention Proposed

President Kennedy's request for $600 million now and a prospect of $2 billion later to beef up employment in 958 localities where unemployment is a third higher than the national average is recession prevention.

As such it will be shunned by those members of Congress who would rather lose their committee assignments than admit there is need for recession prevention. But it will be taken to their bosoms by other representatives and senators, never happier than when they are legislating against gloom and doom.

This is the typical quandary of legislators who are asked to cope with underemployment. They are skittish about coming to grips with the existence of the problem. It is like being asked to acknowledge something unpleasant in order to accomplish something pleasant, unless they are members of the party out of power.

But there is an easy way out of this tight spot if legislators would look for it as assiduously as they look for silver linings and gloom and doom. It is to find a way to shift into the military budget whatever needs to be done to beef up employment in areas that are not cleaning up on defense contracts.

THE DEFENSE program absorbs about 10 per cent of the nation's total production of goods and services and employs about 10 per cent of the labor force, taking into account the armed services. Kansas, Washington, New Mexico, California, Connecticut, Arizona and Utah depend on military procurement for more than 20 per cent of their manufacturing employment. Some communities owe more than half their jobs to military procurement.

As former President Eisenhower warned in his farewell address, the vested interest of supplies and their employes in military procurement has given rise to the most powerful lobby that ever existed. It is able to squeeze better than $50 billion a year out of Congress without causing a squeal.

Therefore, the thing to do is to put into the military budget everything that can be put into it and take Congress off the spot. Though not a brand new idea, the potentialities of this idea never have been used to the limit.

IT WOULD be almost equally handy if recession prevention could be included in foreign aid, but that would be stretching a point.

Even though much foreign aid is a subsidized export market for U.S. production, it would be next to impossible to justify including public works project in a foreign aid bill.

It would be easier to call it a new highway, a defense dredging department or a security measure and add it to military spending.

Algerian Moslems Can Wait

Not the least noteworthy thing in news dispatches from Algeria is the evidence that the Moslem majority, whose independence is at stake, are showing incredibly good discipline in the face of extreme provocation.

They are taking their leaders' word for it that the cruel strategy of European Algerians is to commit so many atrocities against them they will rise in fury to drive all white men out of Algeria.

This would put them in conflict with the French army. It would destroy their truce with the French government, because they would be in a state of insurrection against French sovereignty.

They are heeding their leaders' warnings about this danger. They are heeding warnings, too, about being taken in by the apparent friendliness of the Soviet Union, which granted them diplomatic recognition before they had taken the first step into nationhood.

Nothing has been provided yet. Further devilments and provocations will be concoted to darken the promise of Algerian sovereignty. One or more of these may so infuriate the Moslems they will turn against their persecutors.

But it is ironic that it's Moslems are able to discipline themselves at the climax of their long struggle against French rule, while white Frenchmen are killing one another over an issue that has been settled, as far as the Moslems and the government of the French Republic are concerned.

These are the same "undisciplined" people whose violence touched off the long Algerian war. As in the Congo, these are the supposedly irresponsible "natives" who, in a showdown, are being more responsible than the people who once ruled over them as their superiors.

Cannibalism Among Communists

If everything is as it is reported to be and a Cuban Communist named Anibal Escalante has fled to save himself from Fidel Castro, the situation in Cuba must be called normal.

Under the one-party system of Moscow-based communism, there still are two opinions. There always are two opinions, no matter what the system.

In a two-party system, this is taken for granted. One party attacks the other party's opinion as if the thing were a game. The real bitterness is saved for fights inside the parties, where it's a battle for survival.

Inside the Communist party, every difference of opinion is a matter of survival; there is nowhere else to go, nothing else to do if you lose. Thus, the cannibalism among Communist party zealots. Thus the gnawing fear lest some individual get into a position of personal influence that would enable him to build up a personality cult that would be more powerful than party doctrine.

The fear is not peculiar to members of the Communist party; politicians everywhere are concerned with it and all politicians hope to become leaders of personality cults. But only in absolutist societies can one man run another to ground. Elsewhere he can disagree, he can belittle, he can insult, he can ridicule but he cannot destroy.

Anibal Escalante has left Cuba. All well and good. If he were on top, Fidel Castro would have to leave Cuba. There is no place for a difference of opinion in countries where only one opinion is permitted to be heard.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Some states have made safety belts in autos compulsory, with New York the latest to decide man's life is worth saving, even if it is a do-it yourself job.

The way folks are driving autos today it is plain that belts should have been put around them years ago.

They are more important than "cheesecake," fancy radiator caps, electric windows and deluxe ashtrays.

Anybody who respects human life will have to admit belts should have been compulsory on the first autos ever built instead of waiting a half century.

Cocky, careless and arrogant as a man appears at the wheel of auto, he seems unable to keep himself inside the car for sure without being strapped or riveted in.

In modern traffic he would be safer riding a broom and crying "Look, mom; no hands!"

Millions of cars are being driven by half wits, dope addicts, showoffs and people who have never bothered to learn the cardinal rules of safety.

Some of them are so irresponsible they should wear belts at cocktail parties. New York law requires belts only on people in front seats. This is curious unless those in rear seat are supposed to be acrobats and specialists on "trampolines."

Lack of belts in autos has been largely due to their unpopularity. Auto makers have behaved curiously when they changed the bumper designs every season to please human eye but failed to go all out to save human necks.

Public, however, has been guilty through aversion to this safety device. It makes no sense for a driver meeting with close calls every hour on the road, to be choosey about belt. It's like a balloonist balking at a parachute.

Auto owners know they are in peril, but don't want to feel conscious of it. Why belts in airplane and not in autos? Passengers in 2,000 mile journey are comparatively safe, but a man in auto doing 15 yards between his garage and first road turn is putting his life up for grabs.

Safety belts have been optional car equipment for several years, but this is like making net under a trapeze artist subject to a Gallup poll.

Gov. Rockefeller knows value of safety belts. He has been through enough to think they should be worn by politicians while reading opposition editorials. (Women are reported against safety belts. There are times when a girl wants to get out of a car fast.)

Quite A Challenge

Kennedy Due New Labor Peace Plan

By Victor Riesel

On the land, on the sea, in the skies—strikes are in the troubled air. Ships, tugs, planes, docks, harbors, rails, missile plants, rocket sites, aircraft plants and a world of computors in a computed world have labor pains.

Victor Riesel

Not for nothing has the President been asking his experts for a soothing strike formula. Now it is ready in a confidential document. It will be handed to him in April.

It may work. If it does, something new will have been added to the Potomac patter—something called the Critical Disputes Board. A lot of very bright labor and management chiefs—the President's advisers—think it will succeed. We'll soon know.

This document is based on the non-radical middle-of-the-road belief that labor leaders and management executives have the right to argue privately as much as they want—up to a point, a point of peril to the nation.

The President will have around him a group of men with extra-sensory perception. Their antennae will tell them when these collective bargainning arguments become serious.

THIS THEY WILL impart to President Kennedy early in the conflict. He'll name a few of them, tell them to get into the debate months before the danger point—the expiration of the contract.

Under the new plan the board will argue, plead, cajole, explore, push a little, take the parties out to private talks, and maybe a drink or two. But this is not yet the Critical Disputes Board.

The first board will simply try to convince the opponents not to get to that moment of public crisis when newsmen begin their harrowing reports of what might happen, and the citizenry, the executives and the rank and file read them and become agitated.

The first board, which is really running interference for the President and Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg, next will have to decide if they ought to disturb the White House. They then will report three matters. One, both sides are stubborn. Two, if both sides stick to their fixed positions there will be a strike. Three, if there is a strike, there will be an emergency or threat to the country's welfare—or it will be tough but not a national emergency.

THUS THE PRESIDENT does not have to decide for himself whether to move in. If this front running bloc says there will be a national emergency he moves automatically.

At the present he merely gets a set of facts. No one officially says there is a crisis. Under the new plan, having been told the national interest will be jeopardized, he simply issues an order telling the men not to strike, or orders them back to work if they have jumped the gun and walked out.

He would not need to go to the federal courts. He would tell them to work and bargain again for 80 days.

Then he appoints a Critical Dispute Board. It now sits officially with the embattled ones. The board members are hep because they are virtually the same men who were on the unofficial front runner earlier in the crisis.

The Critical Disputes Board will have new powers. It will not only be fact finding, it will have the power to mediate, argue, cajole and push real hard.

Then, if it has failed to convince the feudists to settle, it can make wage and price recommendations to the President. And make them out loud. Perhaps at the White House, perhaps in Mr. Kennedy's presence. But real loud.

Since the Critical Disputes Board will have labor as well as public and management men on it, their stentorian suggestions will not be easily ignored by the disputed forces.

SINCE ANYTHING can happen in America and usually does, both sides can rebuff the President and the Critical Disputes Board. This now leaves it up to the President.

If a strike breaks out again, Mr. Kennedy would be empowered to go to Congress for a new law. He would not have to wait for strikers to ballot or for any new offers and any new agruments. He can march right up the Hill.

There follows an explanation of alternative courses that might be pursued by the President. While presumably based on Mr. Kennedy's ideas, it is presented as Mr. Alsop's own analysis. He gives, for instance, this outline of Mr. Kennedy's "grand strategy":

"The aim now is to convince Khrushchev on one point, and leave him uncertain on another. She drags doormats. The premises are littered with tin cans she has bitten flat. She carries stones in her mouth. Her cat-carrying has slowed down, presumably because of scratches found on her nose. But her cat-chasing has speeded up as she developed speed.

Her attitude toward the Twillery sheep remains to be determined, though on decent days when the sheep have been outside she has shown pleasure in rounding them up and running them into the barn, then sitting in the doorway to keep them from going out.

Lambs intrigue her, but with one exception she has been kept a safe distance away. A ewe with a lamb by her side is no animal to be tempted by a target as easy to hit as a lumbering pup. The exception was an orphan lamb that had to be taken into the house to save it.

She mothered it there as if it were a puppy. Then she tried to play with it as if it were a kitten. Then she tried to manage it as if it were one of the cattle her ancestors were valued for herding. She moved up alongside it and threw the weight of her body into it to make it move where she wanted it to go.

The pup is in that stage of development where the less said about her the better. Her negatives are on the verge of overbalancing her positives. Our children went through this at one time too — an era in which they teetered between juvenile delinquency and adolescent callowness.

On the negative side, the pup digs holes in flowerbeds, makes muddy footprints on the side of the house when she peers in windows, keeps the yard cluttered with wood, piles of excavated dirt and her playthings, including doormats, burlap bags and scraps of milk cartons and tin cans she salvages from the family-owned and operated dump. She finds things to bark at in the middle of the night with a woofer that can wake up the township, she is proud of her sharp white teeth and uses them too much and is as unhandy to have around as an overexuberant pony.

On the positive side, she is pettable and reliable; you always know where she is. She is between your legs when you are walking and hanging over your shoulder when you are trying to do something.

People tell us to be patient; that the pup will settle down. We're being patient and saying as little about the problem as possible, in the hope it will solve itself. One million, 239 thousand, 467 . . .

Beaver Mental Health Group Plans Student Essay Contest

Judges have been announced for the second annual mental health careers essay contest open to all high school seniors and juniors in Beaver County.

The Beaver County Mental Health Society, sponsor of the contest, is giving a $50 Savings Bond to the winner. Deadline is April 15.

Judges will be Miss Mildred Smolkovich, social worker at the Child Welfare Services of Beaver County; Ralph Meador, chief psychiatric social worker at the Mental Hygiene Clinic of Beaver County, and Dr. R. L. Schanck, head of the psychology department of Geneva College.

They met with Richard Myers of Beaver, chairman of the mental health careers committee of the society, and Mrs. E. M. Chapman, society executive director, and discussed points for judging.

Essays must be from 500 to 1,000 words in length. Subjects students may choose are "Why I Want to be a Psychiatrist," "Why I Want to be a Clinical Psychologist," "Why I Want to be a Psychiatric Social Worker," "Why I Want to be a Psychiatric Nurse," "Why I Want to be a Recreational Therapist," "Why I Want to be an Occupational Therapist" and "Why I Want to be a Psychiatric Aide."

Guidance teachers in all the high schools of the county have copies of the contest rules. Many English classes are working on the essays.

The contest is part of the mental health careers program of the society and is an effort to interest young people in going into these careers about which little is known.

"It is estimated that there are 18 million people in America today who need some kind of psychiatric care, while only 2 million are receiving it," Myers said. "We feel an urgency about interesting young people in these careers where so many shortages exist."

Other members of the careers committee are Dr. Ann K. Davies of Pittsburgh, Roland E. DeLaney of Aliquippa, Miss Ann McGovern and Mrs. Leon Wohlgemuth of Beaver, the Rev. Stephen Kato and Mrs. H. H. Wylie of Beaver Falls, Mrs. George A. Samarin Jr. of New Brighton and Dr. David Spence of Pittsburgh.

Bodies Of 3 Children Found In Freezer Unit

CLINTON, S.C. (AP)—The bodies of three young children were found Wednesday in one of three compartments of an abandoned freezer locker.

The victims were Phyllis Craig, 4, and Sylvia Craig, 3, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stonewall Craig; and Angelia Davis, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis.

Sheriff R. Eugene Johnson said Mrs. Davis had seen the children playing in her yard and began looking for them when they disappeared from her sight. She found them in the freezer locker that was in the yard of the Davis home.

Budget Lists $18,685 Gain For Hancock

The budget of $554,908 adopted by Hancock County Commissioners Wednesday for the 1962-63 fiscal year follows last year's closely.

The new budget was increased by only $18,685 despite a raise of over $7 million in assessments on personal property, public utilities and real estate.

Such a raise would normally provide more taxing power for operating county government, but the bulk of the increase in assessments was in Class I personal property and public utilities where the levy rate is the lowest.

Commissioners said $536,008 of the new budget will be derived from tax levies on four classes of property.

The major expenditures for next year are:

Clerk of County Court, $5,890; deputy clerks, County Court, $18,800; clerk of Circuit Court, $4,150; deputy clerks, Circuit Court, $7,320; sheriff and treasurer, $4,800.

Deputy sheriffs, $82,980; expenses in serving processes and making arrests, $21,000; prosecuting attorney, $5,400; prosecutor's assistant and employes, $6,900; assessor, $4,800.

Deputy assessors, $47,180; county commissioners, $11,330; County Health Department, $33,706; County Children's Home, $24,860; dog wardens, $7,200; probation officer, $5,900.

Cemeteries, $10,000; general election, $9,000; general relief fund, $83,651; County Infirmary, $19,500; Courthouse annex (abandoned Dam 8 property) $8,000; fire departments, $2,650; Social Security, $5,000 and public employes retirement, $14,000.

Gaslight Era Begins

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Although built in the gaslight era, staid old Ryman Auditorium, home of the Grand Ole Opry, is just now getting its gaslights. Installation of four sidewalk gaslights plus one in a niche in the wall built in 1891 has just been completed.

MARTHA

"But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone?"
—Luke X:40

Martha, the sister of Lazarus and Mary, who lived in the village of Bethany, personifies the kind of devotion that expresses itself in service.

Because she loved Jesus, she wanted more than anything else to minister to His physical needs.

So the moment the Master crosses the threshold of her house, she rushes about to see that He is comfortable and well fed. He is surely tired from his journey, and would like to wash. He must have a good meal, too, and refreshment.

She sets about at once with household chores—lighting the fire, preparing food, laying the table.

When her sister Mary does not stir a hand to assist her, but merely sits at Jesus' feet, transfixed as she listens to His every word, Martha complains to Jesus.

It seems to her that if Mary loved Jesus as she does, she would surely want to serve Him. But Jesus tells her: "Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: but one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her."

Nevertheless, Jesus understood Martha's attitude, and He loved her for her devotion and response to Him.

Gradually, as time went on, and Martha came to have a deeper understanding of the Truth embodied in Jesus, she lost to some degree her impatience and anxiety.

Later, at the Passover Supper in Bethany, after her brother has been raised from the dead by Jesus, it is still Martha who serves the table.

But, from the brief glimpse we have of her on this occasion, it is clear that she has been freed from her former preoccupation with household cares. She is no longer cumbered, no longer "troubled about many things."

For her devotion and service have led her to a realization of "the one thing that is needful"—love made calm with trust.

CHICAGO (AP) — Five Ohio trucking organizations are among 18 named by Teamsters President James R. Hoffa in a complaint filed with the National Labor Relations Board here. Hoffa charges that employers failed to honor an agreement to make payments from piggy-back truck-rail revenues into the union's welfare fund and have refused to negotiate on the subject.

The Ohio groups listed are Northern Ohio Motor Truck Association, Cleveland Draymens Association, Steel Truckers Employers Association and Cleveland Group of Motor Carriers, Inc., all of Cleveland, and Ohio Motor Carriers Labor Relations Association, Columbus.

Lakewood Mayor Says $3,000 Pay Hike Not Enough

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mayor Frank P. Celeste of suburban Lakewood says a proposed $3,000 pay hike for his job is not enough and $1,000 for councilmen is too much.

The mayor, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state attorney general, vetoed ordinances Wednesday which would have increased his annual salary to $16,000 and the pay for councilmen to $4,000 a year.

He let go into effect without his signature a 3 per cent pay hike for city employes. The mayor had recommended a 5 per cent pay hike, which he said would have cost an additional $19,125 this year.

Mayor Celeste noted that a Council committee report on the mayor's salary mentioned the $18,000 to $25,000 range for hospital superintendent and the $20,000 annual salary of the Lakewood superintendent of schools.

"No reason is given why, after this comparison is made, the pay is set at only $16,000" Celeste declared.

Changed His Mind?

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — A customer found a note on the floor in the lobby of the Rochester Savings Bank and turned it over to a guard. It said: "This is a hold-up. Do not call guard or you will be hurt. Quickly put money into the bag." They didn't find any bag or any robber.

Funds Termed Ample To Pay Ohio's Aged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state auditor said today that despite marked increases in health care benefits, Ohio will have ample funds to pay its 83,823 old age pensioners for the balance of the fiscal year ending June 30.

Auditor James A. Rhodes said he based his estimated upon the overall requirements of $60,735,095 for the pension program during the first three quarters of the fiscal year. He said the balance of $22,300,235 remaining out of the original legislative appropriation of $83,035,330 will provide a cushion of slightly more than $1.3 million after meeting the estimated requirements of $20,918,355 for the final quarter of the fiscal year.

CHICAGO (AP) — Five Ohio trucking organizations are among 18 named by Teamsters President James R. Hoffa in a complaint filed with the National Labor Relations Board here. Hoffa charges that employers failed to honor an agreement to make payments from piggy-back truck-rail revenues into the union's welfare fund and have refused to negotiate on the subject.

The Ohio groups listed are Northern Ohio Motor Truck Association, Cleveland Draymens Association, Steel Truckers Employers Association and Cleveland Group of Motor Carriers, Inc., all of Cleveland, and Ohio Motor Carriers Labor Relations Association, Columbus.

Lakewood Mayor Says $3,000 Pay Hike Not Enough

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mayor Frank P. Celeste of suburban Lakewood says a proposed $3,000 pay hike for his job is not enough and $1,000 for councilmen is too much.

The mayor, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state attorney general, vetoed ordinances Wednesday which would have increased his annual salary to $16,000 and the pay for councilmen to $4,000 a year.

He let go into effect without his signature a 3 per cent pay hike for city employes. The mayor had recommended a 5 per cent pay hike, which he said would have cost an additional $19,125 this year.

Mayor Celeste noted that a Council committee report on the mayor's salary mentioned the $18,000 to $25,000 range for hospital superintendent and the $20,000 annual salary of the Lakewood superintendent of schools.

"No reason is given why, after this comparison is made, the pay is set at only $16,000" Celeste declared.

Changed His Mind?

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — A customer found a note on the floor in the lobby of the Rochester Savings Bank and turned it over to a guard. It said: "This is a hold-up. Do not call guard or you will be hurt. Quickly put money into the bag." They didn't find any bag or any robber.

Funds Termed Ample To Pay Ohio's Aged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state auditor said today that despite marked increases in health care benefits, Ohio will have ample funds to pay its 83,823 old age pensioners for the balance of the fiscal year ending June 30.

Auditor James A. Rhodes said he based his estimated upon the overall requirements of $60,735,095 for the pension program during the first three quarters of the fiscal year. He said the balance of $22,300,235 remaining out of the original legislative appropriation of $83,035,330 will provide a cushion of slightly more than $1.3 million after meeting the estimated requirements of $20,918,355 for the final quarter of the fiscal year.

Secret Labels Removed From U.S. Stockpile

WASHINGTON (AP) — Except for two items listed as "undisclosed materials," the cost, value and quantity of each of 76 materials in the nation's $7.7-billion strategic stockpile were a matter of public record today.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., removed the secret labels from 62 war-essential materials Wednesday at a hearing of his Armed Services subcommittee on stockpiling, which is investigating the costly hoard by request of President Kennedy. A dozen materials were declassified last week.

Wednesday's testimony revealed the government owns more than it needs of most stockpiled products. A three-year supply is now considered enough to tide the country over a major war.

Figures supplied by the Office of Emergency Planning showed an excess of about $55 million worth of bauxite, $79 million of quartz crystals, $48 million of platinum, $21 million of silicon carbide, $25.6 million of aluminum oxide and $16.4 million of cadmium.

There also is $25.7 million worth of unneeded castor oil, $1.4 million of excess opium, and $5.2 million of unneeded duck feathers and down used for military mattresses.

Rep. Latta Seeks To Nullify Rule On Redistricting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Delbert Latta, R-Ohio, wasted no time in seeking to nullify Monday's Supreme Court ruling relative to redistricting of state legislatures.

The Bowling Green congressman introduced a proposed constitutional amendment Wednesday. It says the right of each state to set its own districts for all elections "shall not be denied or abridged by the United States."

Latta contends that if federal courts can rule on the method of electing state legislatures, "they can do it for other officers" all the way up to the President.

The Supreme Court decision, on a Tennessee case but regarded as applicable elsewhere, was that federal courts have jurisdiction to hear suits by voters who contend their state legislature is unfairly districted. Such suits are generally by urban voters who hold that the rural population has too much representation for its size.

The board's staff termed it the lightest response to a registration campaign within memory and an indication of an unusually light vote in the primaries.

Despite an all-out campaign on the final day, only 55 registered. Forty - one new voters were registered at the board's office on W. 6th St., which also recorded 25 changes of address.

A total of 14 were enrolled in the three branch registration offices established in the principal residential areas.

Three registrations and two transfers were listed in a branch office at the Pleasant Heights School; seven registered and four transferred at another at the North Side Fire Station and four registrations and two transfers were listed in the East End site at the Louis - James Store on Mulberry St.

The board's W. 6th St. office was open from 9 a. m. until 9 p.m. and the branch points operated from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 4 to 9 p.m.

The only real rush came shortly after noon, when store personnel took advantage of the Wednesday afternoon closing to visit the board's office.

At Salineville, a grass fire in a field on Monroe Heights was extinguished late this morning by firemen who minutes later were summoned to another reported grass fire in the Hayti area.

Firemen were called to a fire at a junk yard Wednesday afternoon, and answered an alarm at a lumber yard last night when a sawdust pile ignited.

Market Adds Floor Space

A Calcutta market has enlarged its facilities and changed its name.

The market, previously known as Billingsley & Son Market, now is the Billingsley And Son Foodland.

A remodeling program was completed about two weeks ago and a grand opening started Wednesday and will continue through Saturday.

Self - service meat counters were added, along with 2,000 square feet of floor space. The store now has a total of 3,600 square feet.

The owners also doubled the refrigeration units at the store. Four regular and three part-time clerks are employed.

The store is owned by William Gay Billingsley and his mother, Mrs. Carrema Billingsley.

Foodland was added to the name after the market became associated with the national wholesale firm carrying the same name.

National Steel's Income Declines

WEIRTON — The National Steel Co.'s annual report shows net income in 1961 was lower than in recent years.

Net income for 1961 was $32,916,804, equal to $4.31 per share on 7,641,452 shares, compared with net income in 1960 of $41,937,235, equal to $5.53 per share on 7,582,460 shares. Dividends of $3 per share, amounting to $22,852,487, were paid in 1961 and $19,064,317, the balance of net income, was retained in the business.

National Steel's net sales in 1961 were $648,366,101, compared with $697,063,036 in 1960.

National Steel's financial results were adversely affected by two conditions that affected the steel industry as a whole in 1961. The first was that the demand for steel was considerably below average through most of the year. The second was the increase, in December 1960, in wages and benefits under labor agreements which affected the entire year 1961, and a similar increase in October 1961 affecting the final quarter.

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP) — Neighbors and passersby helped to rescue nine elderly patients at the Day O' Rest rest home when the top floor of the two-story brick building was destroyed by fire Wednesday.

U.S.-Paid Travel Of GI Families Due To Resume

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government-paid travel of military families to Europe will resume by early May, key Pentagon officials predicted today.

Such travel by wives and children of Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine officers and men was suspended nearly six months ago at a time when the Berlin crisis military buildup was in full swing.

The Defense Department said then that the requirements for moving 40,000 regular Army reinforcements to Europe made necessary the suspension of dependent travel.

Meanwhile, Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr Jr. said in a speech prepared for a Bethany College convocation in West Virginia that "one of our great needs at the present time is the early resumption of dependent travel to overseas areas so that our soldiers can benefit" from the influence of family life.

Beer Distributors' Permit In Transfer

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus has started processing an application for the transfer of the licenses held by a beer and wine distributing firm in which a city man is listed as a co-owner.

Licenses held by Vincent Carrara and Espedito Schiappa, for the S. & G. Beer Distributors at 1253 Pennsylvania Ave. and in Steubenville, are being transferred to Schiappa and John J. Falone of Glenmoor.

They hold licenses to distribute both beer and wine.

The board also is processing an application from the Toronto Lanes, Inc., to move its licenses from 201 N. 4th St., Toronto, to 1119 5th St. The firm holds a permit for sale of high-powered beer and wine for on-premises consumption and carry out and a restaurant permit allowing sale of spirituous liquor and wine by the glass until 1 a. m.

Pate made from liverwurst and cream cheese is good, but it's even better when pureed cooked chicken livers are added.

WEIRTON — The National Steel Co.'s annual report shows net income in 1961 was lower than in recent years.

Net income for 1961 was $32,916,804, equal to $4.31 per share on 7,641,452 shares, compared with net income in 1960 of $41,937,235, equal to $5.53 per share on 7,582,460 shares. Dividends of $3 per share, amounting to $22,852,487, were paid in 1961 and $19,064,317, the balance of net income, was retained in the business.

National Steel's net sales in 1961 were $648,366,101, compared with $697,063,036 in 1960.

National Steel's financial results were adversely affected by two conditions that affected the steel industry as a whole in 1961. The first was that the demand for steel was considerably below average through most of the year. The second was the increase, in December 1960, in wages and benefits under labor agreements which affected the entire year 1961, and a similar increase in October 1961 affecting the final quarter.

U.S.-Paid Travel Of GI Families Due To Resume

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government-paid travel of military families to Europe will resume by early May, key Pentagon officials predicted today.

Such travel by wives and children of Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine officers and men was suspended nearly six months ago at a time when the Berlin crisis military buildup was in full swing.

The Defense Department said then that the requirements for moving 40,000 regular Army reinforcements to Europe made necessary the suspension of dependent travel.

Meanwhile, Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr Jr. said in a speech prepared for a Bethany College convocation in West Virginia that "one of our great needs at the present time is the early resumption of dependent travel to overseas areas so that our soldiers can benefit" from the influence of family life.

Beer Distributors' Permit In Transfer

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus has started processing an application for the transfer of the licenses held by a beer and wine distributing firm in which a city man is listed as a co-owner.

Licenses held by Vincent Carrara and Espedito Schiappa, for the S. & G. Beer Distributors at 1253 Pennsylvania Ave. and in Steubenville, are being transferred to Schiappa and John J. Falone of Glenmoor.

They hold licenses to distribute both beer and wine.

The board also is processing an application from the Toronto Lanes, Inc., to move its licenses from 201 N. 4th St., Toronto, to 1119 5th St. The firm holds a permit for sale of high-powered beer and wine for on-premises consumption and carry out and a restaurant permit allowing sale of spirituous liquor and wine by the glass until 1 a. m.

Pate made from liverwurst and cream cheese is good, but it's even better when pureed cooked chicken livers are added.

Semi-Final Berths At Stake In Jaycee Tourney Tonight

Baron's Squeeze Past First Test

Defending champion Baron's Cafe of Steubenville had to put on a late rush to squeeze through its first start in the Wellsville Jaycee Tournament for a 39-37 win over Alex's Carry-Out Wednesday night at Beacom Memorial Gym.

The field was narrowed to eight quarter-final teams from a starting group of 24.

Semi-final berths will be at stake tonight on the four-game schedule. The semi-final battles will be held Friday, with the championship game and consolation tilt Saturday night.

Baron's, by virtue of its narrow victory last night, meets Burton's Sohio of Hammondsville which features All-Ohio Don Spires. That game is set for 8:15 tonight.

Tonight's opener at 7 matches Freed's against a strong Shaffer Trucking team, which features talent from Kent State University. At 9:30, the impressive M. L. Obitt's five meets Amo's Esso of Rochester, which lists former Geneva College standouts.

The finale at 10:45 pits George Bright's against Miner's Tavern (Salem High).

Big Jim Smith pitched in 18 points as Baron's came from behind in the final period to nip Alex's Carry-Out. Alex's showed a 34-26 lead going into the final quarter before the East Liverpool entry ran out of gas. Jack Cibulka, another former Steubenville College star, added 10 points to the Baron attack.

Jumpin Joe (Goose) Richards, the ex-Washington and Jefferson standout, fired in 10 points for Alex's.

George Hale and Al Dawson scored 17 points each to lead George Bright's past American Vitrified, 61-31. The Bright's five is expected to get some help from several Bowling Green players for tonight's contest with Miner's.

Amo's Esso, with Jones pouring in 17 points, eliminated Gallagher's, 45-39. Franklin Jackson, the ex-Wellsville cager, scored 19 points in a losing cause.

Miner's had little trouble sending Buck's of New Cumberland to the sidelines. Watson tallied 12 points to pace Miner's attack while Jack Thayer's seven markers topped Buck's.

M. L. Obitts of Elyria blasted Uncle Pete's of Wellsville off the floor with a 77-11 walloping. Hershey dropped in 13 points while Burgess added 12 to the attack. Nunzio Lombardozzi scored six points for the losers.

6-Foot-7 Boxer Stirs AAU Crowd At Cincy

CINCINNATI (AP)— Basketball coaches will drool when they see Jim Beattie of St. Paul stride into the ring today during the opening of the National AAU Boxing Tournament.

He stands 6-foot-7 and weighs 230 pounds.

In fact, Jack Cherry, sports publicist for Cincinnati's Xavier University, walked into the AAU open house Wednesday night, took one look at Beattie and said:

"Wait a minute, I gotta call Jim McCafferty Xavier's basketball coach) and get him down here quick."

But such a call would have been wasted effort. Beattie plans to be a professional boxer and said, "— made on feeble attempt at basketball." He was a semi-finalist in the Golden Gloves.

Beattie, of course, is only one of what may be as many as 200 boxers who will start swinging punches in the two rings at the Cincinnati Gardens today for the national AAU titles.

Weigh-ins and pairings were to be made this morning and then the actual number of entries will be known.

This much is certain. It will be a field loaded with AAU and Golden Glove champions.

Ralph Ungricht of Provo, Utah, is the only actual 1961 AAU champ back again. He won last year at Pocatello, Idaho, at 125 pounds and will be in the 132-pound class this year.

Don Whaley of Cincinnati, the 1956 champ at 119 pounds, is back again and so is George Foster of Cincinnati, the 1960 champ at 125 pounds. He will be in the 132-pound class this year with Ungricht.

Celtics Take Playoff Lead

By The Associated Press

"Our series with the Warriors have a way of going seven games," said Frank Ramsey of the Boston Celtics before their Eastern Division playoff in the National Basketball Association.

It looks as if Ramsey had it tabbed. The way things are developing, the Los Angeles Lakers will be crowned as Western champs, thoroughly rested, and maybe even rusty by the time the Philadelphia-Boston scuffling provides them with an opponent for the title series.

While the Lakers can wrap up the Western Division title tonight in game No. 4 with Detroit, the Celtics are 2-1 over the Warriors and acting as if they'll go seven again.

After beating Philadelphia at Boston, then losing to the Warriors at Philadelphia, the Celtics got back home Wednesday night and—presto—a 129-114 romp.

Football World Lauds Grid Master

Gen. Bob Neyland Dies Of Liver Ailment At 70

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Praise poured in from leading figures of the sports world today for Gen. Robert Neyland, dead at 70 after his formula for flawless football gave him years of fabulous success as Tennessee coach.

The big, gruff man, who produced some of America's top teams and gave the game some of its best coaches, died Wednesday at Ochsner Foundation Hospital of a kidney and liver ailment. Hospital officials said Neyland, who entered the hospital Jan. 14, lapsed into a coma Tuesday night.

The general was a nonconformist and never abandoned his precision single wing when other coaches adopted the more spectacular T-formation after World War II.

In his 27 years as Tennessee coach, the Volunteers won 171 games, lost only 27 and tied 12. His 1951 team finished first in The Associated Press poll and was crowned national champion. He stepped down in 1953 because of the liver ailment.

"I believe Gen. Neyland was the greatest coach of them all," said one of his brightest stars and most apt pupils, Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech.

George Halas, one of the founders of the National Football League said, "It is quite a shock to hear of the death of one of the stalwarts of football. He was a great tactician. He developed one of the great systems and contributed so much to the sport."

"I don't know anyone who contributed more to football, as a player, coach and member of the (NCAA) rules committee," said former Columbia coach Lou Little.

An outstanding engineer, Neyland spent a year on an assignment in the Panama Canal Zone, but retired from the Army in 1936 to give his full energy to football. The Army recalled him to active duty in 1941 and he spent the next five years in service, rising to brigadier general. He won the Distinguished Service Medal for his work as commandant of the Port of Calcutta handling billions of dollars in supplies for the China-Burma-India theater of operations in World War II.

Other than Dodd, other Neyland-trained coaches include Murray Warmath of Minnesota, Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee, Ray Graves of Florida, Bill Barnes of UCLA, Clay Stapleton of Iowa State and Phil Dickens of Indiana.

Neyland is survived by his widow and two sons.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in Knoxville. He will be buried in the U.S. National Cemetery, not far from the field where his teams won one of their memorable games.

Downes Camp Sees Big $ If Terry Gets By Pender

BOSTON (AP)—A million dollar gate is envisioned by the Terry Downes camp after—and if—the battling Briton successfully defends his share of the middleweight title against former champion Paul Pender on April 7.

"Terry hasn't made a great deal of money from fighting yet," his manager, Sam Burns, said Wednesday night.

"But if we get past this one—the third one with Pender—and are successful in arranging a fight with Gene Fullmer, I'm looking for the first million dollar gate in a long time in the middleweight ranks. The last one I can recall is Randy Turpin and Sugar Ray Robinson 11 years ago."

Burns, said that the 25-year-old Downes pocketed only $17,000 in the first Pender fight, which he lost on a seventh round TKO in Boston. The $20,000 that Terry made in the second bout has been tied up in escrow to insure that Downes would give Pender a rubber shot.

Pender, a former fireman from suburban Brookline, retired in the ninth round of the second fight, in London last July, saying a virus attack several days before the bout finally caught up with him.

Pender, 31, who owns one of the best left jabs in the business, ranks a solid 2-1 favorite in Boston betting circles against the scrappy though unpolished Downes. However, the odds are even in London.

Downes is recognized as champion in Europe, Massachusetts and New York.

Ohio State Favored In NCAA Swim Meet

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Host Ohio State is the experts' pick to win the NCAA swimming championship in the meet which opens today. If the Buckeyes do it, they'll edge ahead of Michigan for the most team titles in the event's history.

The first of seven sessions, which continue through Saturday evening, was on tap this afternoon as the Buckeyes and Wolverines each launched bids for an 11th championship.

There are 66 other teams entered, but only two can boast previous NCAA swim crowns. Yale won four and Southern California one (1960) for the only interruptions in the domination by the two Big Ten powers since team scoring was inaugurated in 1937.

Prompt Hero, a Florida - bred, won Canada's famed Jockey Club Cup at Woodbine last year.

Cicada 8-5 Favorite In Florida Run

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Meadow Stable's Cicada never has gone the Florida Derby distance of a mile and an eighth but oddsmakers today made her 8 to 5 favorite in Saturday's feature at Gulfstream Park.

Cicada has the best record of any thoroughbred now racing — winner of 13 races in 19 starts and never out of the money — and has earned $397,431.

The champion 2-year-old filly of 1961 will have Willie Shoemaker aboard and carries 117 pounds, a five-pound concession from the stakes winning colts and one pound from the others.

Mrs. Moody Jolley's Ridan, with Manuel Ycaza up, figures to be Cicada's chief rival. Third choice goes to Fred W. Hooper's Admiral's Voyage, under Braulio Baeza.

The race will carry a gross purse of $125,800 if all 11 start. In that event, the winner would earn $85,800 with $20,000, $10,000, $7,000 and $3,000 to the next four finishers in order.

Kid Paret Still On Critical List

NEW YORK (AP) — Former welterweight boxing champion Benny Paret of Cuba entered his fifth day of unconsciousness today with his wife optimistic but his doctors saying he still had only a slight chance to survive.

A medical bulletin Wednesday night from Roosevelt Hospital, where Paret, 24, was rushed for emergency brain surgery after his 12th round knockout loss to Emile Griffith Saturday night, said the fighter "is maintaining the slight improvement which he showed yesterday. His condition remains critical."

A spokesman said his coma had lessened but remained deep.

"He's not going to get better fast," the spokesman said. "He may get worse. There's no way of telling how long he'll be in a coma. He could come out of it in a few minutes or a year from now. And he might not come out of it at all."

Paret's personal physician, Dr. Manuel Acosta, talked to hospital authorities and said he was convinced there was only a slight chance Paret would recover. Two neurologists said that, at best, the fighter's chances were less than 5 in 100.

While the reports were not encouraging, Paret's wife, Lucy, said: "I feel a lot better than I felt about his condition before." Mrs. Paret, expecting the couple's second child in September, has been with her husband almost constantly since Sunday after a hurried trip here from Miami.

Paret's brother, Antonio, 26, arrived Wednesday night from Santa Clara, Cuba. Antonio said their mother, Maxima Crespo, had her travel papers in order and expected to come to New York from Havana today or Friday.

Bangkok Boxer Dies After Being Kayoed

BANGKOK (AP)—A professional boxer died 10 hours after being knocked out during an exhibition bout during a temple fair in Chainat Province earlier this week, police officials announced Wednesday.

The fighter, Sa-Ngiam, did not regain consciousness after the fight.

In Thai boxing feet and elbows can be used. Police did not say how the fatal blow was delivered.

Cepeda Blasts 4th HR To Give Giants Victory

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who might hit 62 in '62.

When that question pops up around baseball circles, the player named as most likely to hit that homer target is Orlando Cepeda, who started spring training late but is getting the home run range early.

The National League home run king, 24, gave his backers added support Wednesday when he belted a three-run job that snapped a 5-5 tie and carried the San Francisco Giants to an 11-6 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels at Phoenix.

It was No. 4 of the exhibition season for the right-handed swinging Cepeda and his third in three consecutive games.

Cepeda is one of the players figured as a threat to Roger Maris' 61-homer mark. The young first baseman-outfielder hit 46 homers and 142 RBI last season while building a .311 batting average.

With an expanded 10-team league, an enlarged 162-game schedule, Cepeda could wind up No. 1 in the homer derby. And quite possibly with 62 in '62.

In other noteworthy developments Wednesday, Houston's Ken Johnson became the first pitcher this spring to hurl a nine-inning shutout as he blanked Boston 6-0 on five hits at Scottsdale, and Washington's unpredictable Jimmy Piersall tried an experiment that partially succeeded in a 15-7 loss to Baltimore at Pompano Beach.

The New York Yankees defeated St. Louis 4-1 at Fort Lauderdale, Philadelphia outslugged Milwaukee 12-11 at Clearwater, Cincinnati beat Detroit 4-2 in 10 innings at Lakeland, the New York Mets edged Los Angeles' Dodgers 4-3 at St. Petersburg, Cleveland whipped the Chicago Cubs 9-6 at Mesa and Minnesota nipped Pittsburgh 7-6 at Orlando.

The Colts won their 11th in the last 13 games with Johnson throttling the Red Sox and Merritt Ranew leading the attack with two doubles and a single.

Piersall, a righty-swinger, batted lefty against knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm, stroked one hit and struck out in another appearance while home runs by Earl Robinson and Gus Triandos were powering the Orioles to their victory.

Betting 6-5 And Take Pick In Moore Fight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The betting was about 6-5 and take your pick today on the heavyweight match between old-folks Archie Moore and Argentina's Alejandro Lavorante in the Sports Arena Friday night.

Moore, whose dwindling portion of the world light heavyweight title is not involved, kept secret his exact weight.

But it was apparent he has trimmed down and his advisor, Jack Kearns, said Moore will step into the ring at around 191 pounds.

The 25-year-old Lavorante, a ranking contender for the heavyweight crown, will weigh about 210, manager Pinkie George predicted.

There will be no television nor radio broadcast of the 10-round bout.

'Bowl Down' Cancer Event Set Monday

A "Bowl Down Cancer Tournament" will open Monday and run through April 7 at the Friendly Family Bowling Center and the Headpin Alleys with competition in men's and women's divisions.

OSU Was Toughest, Cincy U. Coach Says

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Ed Jucker, coach of Cincinnati's two-time national basketball champions, says Ohio State was the toughest team the Bearcats faced all season, despite the easy victory in the title game.

Jucker was here Wednesday night to address the North Canton High School basketball and wrestling banquet. "There is no question in my mind that Ohio State was the strongest foe we encountered all season," Jucker said. "We defeated a great team."

He said that while the Buckeyes' All America Jerry Lucas was not at his physical best in the championship contest, he played a "powerful game." Jucker said it was "a tribute to Lucas that he made no mention of his injury after the defeat."

Semi-Final Berths At Stake In Jaycee Tourney Tonight

Baron's Squeeze Past First Test

Defending champion Baron's Cafe of Steubenville had to put on a late rush to squeeze through its first start in the Wellsville Jaycee Tournament for a 39-37 win over Alex's Carry-Out Wednesday night at Beacom Memorial Gym.

The field was narrowed to eight quarter-final teams from a starting group of 24.

Semi-final berths will be at stake tonight on the four-game schedule. The semi-final battles will be held Friday, with the championship game and consolation tilt Saturday night.

Baron's, by virtue of its narrow victory last night, meets Burton's Sohio of Hammondsville which features All-Ohio Don Spires. That game is set for 8:15 tonight.

Tonight's opener at 7 matches Freed's against a strong Shaffer Trucking team, which features talent from Kent State University. At 9:30, the impressive M. L. Obitt's five meets Amo's Esso of Rochester, which lists former Geneva College standouts.

The finale at 10:45 pits George Bright's against Miner's Tavern (Salem High).

Big Jim Smith pitched in 18 points as Baron's came from behind in the final period to nip Alex's Carry-Out. Alex's showed a 34-26 lead going into the final quarter before the East Liverpool entry ran out of gas. Jack Cibulka, another former Steubenville College star, added 10 points to the Baron attack.

Jumpin Joe (Goose) Richards, the ex-Washington and Jefferson standout, fired in 10 points for Alex's.

George Hale and Al Dawson scored 17 points each to lead George Bright's past American Vitrified, 61-31. The Bright's five is expected to get some help from several Bowling Green players for tonight's contest with Miner's.

Amo's Esso, with Jones pouring in 17 points, eliminated Gallagher's, 45-39. Franklin Jackson, the ex-Wellsville cager, scored 19 points in a losing cause.

Miner's had little trouble sending Buck's of New Cumberland to the sidelines. Watson tallied 12 points to pace Miner's attack while Jack Thayer's seven markers topped Buck's.

M. L. Obitts of Elyria blasted Uncle Pete's of Wellsville off the floor with a 77-11 walloping. Hershey dropped in 13 points while Burgess added 12 to the attack. Nunzio Lombardozzi scored six points for the losers.

Football World Lauds Grid Master

Gen. Bob Neyland Dies Of Liver Ailment At 70

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Praise poured in from leading figures of the sports world today for Gen. Robert Neyland, dead at 70 after his formula for flawless football gave him years of fabulous success as Tennessee coach.

The big, gruff man, who produced some of America's top teams and gave the game some of its best coaches, died Wednesday at Ochsner Foundation Hospital of a kidney and liver ailment. Hospital officials said Neyland, who entered the hospital Jan. 14, lapsed into a coma Tuesday night.

The general was a nonconformist and never abandoned his precision single wing when other coaches adopted the more spectacular T-formation after World War II.

In his 27 years as Tennessee coach, the Volunteers won 171 games, lost only 27 and tied 12. His 1951 team finished first in The Associated Press poll and was crowned national champion. He stepped down in 1953 because of the liver ailment.

"I believe Gen. Neyland was the greatest coach of them all," said one of his brightest stars and most apt pupils, Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech.

George Halas, one of the founders of the National Football League said, "It is quite a shock to hear of the death of one of the stalwarts of football. He was a great tactician. He developed one of the great systems and contributed so much to the sport."

"I don't know anyone who contributed more to football, as a player, coach and member of the (NCAA) rules committee," said former Columbia coach Lou Little.

An outstanding engineer, Neyland spent a year on an assignment in the Panama Canal Zone, but retired from the Army in 1936 to give his full energy to football. The Army recalled him to active duty in 1941 and he spent the next five years in service, rising to brigadier general. He won the Distinguished Service Medal for his work as commandant of the Port of Calcutta handling billions of dollars in supplies for the China-Burma-India theater of operations in World War II.

Other than Dodd, other Neyland-trained coaches include Murray Warmath of Minnesota, Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee, Ray Graves of Florida, Bill Barnes of UCLA, Clay Stapleton of Iowa State and Phil Dickens of Indiana.

Neyland is survived by his widow and two sons.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in Knoxville. He will be buried in the U.S. National Cemetery, not far from the field where his teams won one of their memorable games.

Kid Paret Still On Critical List

NEW YORK (AP) — Former welterweight boxing champion Benny Paret of Cuba entered his fifth day of unconsciousness today with his wife optimistic but his doctors saying he still had only a slight chance to survive.

A medical bulletin Wednesday night from Roosevelt Hospital, where Paret, 24, was rushed for emergency brain surgery after his 12th round knockout loss to Emile Griffith Saturday night, said the fighter "is maintaining the slight improvement which he showed yesterday. His condition remains critical."

A spokesman said his coma had lessened but remained deep.

"He's not going to get better fast," the spokesman said. "He may get worse. There's no way of telling how long he'll be in a coma. He could come out of it in a few minutes or a year from now. And he might not come out of it at all."

Paret's personal physician, Dr. Manuel Acosta, talked to hospital authorities and said he was convinced there was only a slight chance Paret would recover. Two neurologists said that, at best, the fighter's chances were less than 5 in 100.

While the reports were not encouraging, Paret's wife, Lucy, said: "I feel a lot better than I felt about his condition before." Mrs. Paret, expecting the couple's second child in September, has been with her husband almost constantly since Sunday after a hurried trip here from Miami.

Paret's brother, Antonio, 26, arrived Wednesday night from Santa Clara, Cuba. Antonio said their mother, Maxima Crespo, had her travel papers in order and expected to come to New York from Havana today or Friday.

BANGKOK (AP)—A professional boxer died 10 hours after being knocked out during an exhibition bout during a temple fair in Chainat Province earlier this week, police officials announced Wednesday.

The fighter, Sa-Ngiam, did not regain consciousness after the fight.

In Thai boxing feet and elbows can be used. Police did not say how the fatal blow was delivered.

Cepeda Blasts 4th HR To Give Giants Victory

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who might hit 62 in '62.

When that question pops up around baseball circles, the player named as most likely to hit that homer target is Orlando Cepeda, who started spring training late but is getting the home run range early.

The National League home run king, 24, gave his backers added support Wednesday when he belted a three-run job that snapped a 5-5 tie and carried the San Francisco Giants to an 11-6 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels at Phoenix.

It was No. 4 of the exhibition season for the right-handed swinging Cepeda and his third in three consecutive games.

Cepeda is one of the players figured as a threat to Roger Maris' 61-homer mark. The young first baseman-outfielder hit 46 homers and 142 RBI last season while building a .311 batting average.

With an expanded 10-team league, an enlarged 162-game schedule, Cepeda could wind up No. 1 in the homer derby. And quite possibly with 62 in '62.

In other noteworthy developments Wednesday, Houston's Ken Johnson became the first pitcher this spring to hurl a nine-inning shutout as he blanked Boston 6-0 on five hits at Scottsdale, and Washington's unpredictable Jimmy Piersall tried an experiment that partially succeeded in a 15-7 loss to Baltimore at Pompano Beach.

The New York Yankees defeated St. Louis 4-1 at Fort Lauderdale, Philadelphia outslugged Milwaukee 12-11 at Clearwater, Cincinnati beat Detroit 4-2 in 10 innings at Lakeland, the New York Mets edged Los Angeles' Dodgers 4-3 at St. Petersburg, Cleveland whipped the Chicago Cubs 9-6 at Mesa and Minnesota nipped Pittsburgh 7-6 at Orlando.

The Colts won their 11th in the last 13 games with Johnson throttling the Red Sox and Merritt Ranew leading the attack with two doubles and a single.

Piersall, a righty-swinger, batted lefty against knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm, stroked one hit and struck out in another appearance while home runs by Earl Robinson and Gus Triandos were powering the Orioles to their victory.

6-Foot-7 Boxer Stirs AAU Crowd At Cincy

CINCINNATI (AP)— Basketball coaches will drool when they see Jim Beattie of St. Paul stride into the ring today during the opening of the National AAU Boxing Tournament.

He stands 6-foot-7 and weighs 230 pounds.

In fact, Jack Cherry, sports publicist for Cincinnati's Xavier University, walked into the AAU open house Wednesday night, took one look at Beattie and said:

"Wait a minute, I gotta call Jim McCafferty Xavier's basketball coach) and get him down here quick."

But such a call would have been wasted effort. Beattie plans to be a professional boxer and said, "— made on feeble attempt at basketball." He was a semi-finalist in the Golden Gloves.

Beattie, of course, is only one of what may be as many as 200 boxers who will start swinging punches in the two rings at the Cincinnati Gardens today for the national AAU titles.

Weigh-ins and pairings were to be made this morning and then the actual number of entries will be known.

This much is certain. It will be a field loaded with AAU and Golden Glove champions.

Ralph Ungricht of Provo, Utah, is the only actual 1961 AAU champ back again. He won last year at Pocatello, Idaho, at 125 pounds and will be in the 132-pound class this year.

Don Whaley of Cincinnati, the 1956 champ at 119 pounds, is back again and so is George Foster of Cincinnati, the 1960 champ at 125 pounds. He will be in the 132-pound class this year with Ungricht.

B-G's Cage Champs Pick Thurmond MVP

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—Bowling Green's Mid-American Conference basketball champions have named Nate Thurmond, 6-foot-10½ pivotman, their most valuable player for 1961-62 and their captain for 1962-63. This is Thurmond's second straight year as squad MVP.

The selections were announced at a winter sports banquet Wednesday night which the wrestling and MAC champion swimming teams also were honored. Marty Schenk of Lima won his second Henry Reest Memorial Trophy as top all-around swimmer.

Celtics Take Playoff Lead

By The Associated Press

"Our series with the Warriors have a way of going seven games," said Frank Ramsey of the Boston Celtics before their Eastern Division playoff in the National Basketball Association.

It looks as if Ramsey had it tabbed. The way things are developing, the Los Angeles Lakers will be crowned as Western champs, thoroughly rested, and maybe even rusty by the time the Philadelphia-Boston scuffling provides them with an opponent for the title series.

While the Lakers can wrap up the Western Division title tonight in game No. 4 with Detroit, the Celtics are 2-1 over the Warriors and acting as if they'll go seven again.

After beating Philadelphia at Boston, then losing to the Warriors at Philadelphia, the Celtics got back home Wednesday night and—presto—a 129-114 romp.

In congratulating the Bearcats Wednesday on their successful defense of the NCAA basketball title against Ohio State, City Council renamed the street on which the UC fieldhouse stands.

Council's resolution said University Avenue between Clifton Avenue and Scioto St. shall be known as the Avenue of Champions.

Downes Camp Sees Big $ If Terry Gets By Pender

BOSTON (AP)—A million dollar gate is envisioned by the Terry Downes camp after—and if—the battling Briton successfully defends his share of the middleweight title against former champion Paul Pender on April 7.

"Terry hasn't made a great deal of money from fighting yet," his manager, Sam Burns, said Wednesday night.

"But if we get past this one—the third one with Pender—and are successful in arranging a fight with Gene Fullmer, I'm looking for the first million dollar gate in a long time in the middleweight ranks. The last one I can recall is Randy Turpin and Sugar Ray Robinson 11 years ago."

Burns, said that the 25-year-old Downes pocketed only $17,000 in the first Pender fight, which he lost on a seventh round TKO in Boston. The $20,000 that Terry made in the second bout has been tied up in escrow to insure that Downes would give Pender a rubber shot.

Pender, a former fireman from suburban Brookline, retired in the ninth round of the second fight, in London last July, saying a virus attack several days before the bout finally caught up with him.

Pender, 31, who owns one of the best left jabs in the business, ranks a solid 2-1 favorite in Boston betting circles against the scrappy though unpolished Downes. However, the odds are even in London.

Downes is recognized as champion in Europe, Massachusetts and New York.

Cicada 8-5 Favorite In Florida Run

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Meadow Stable's Cicada never has gone the Florida Derby distance of a mile and an eighth but oddsmakers today made her 8 to 5 favorite in Saturday's feature at Gulfstream Park.

Cicada has the best record of any thoroughbred now racing — winner of 13 races in 19 starts and never out of the money — and has earned $397,431.

The champion 2-year-old filly of 1961 will have Willie Shoemaker aboard and carries 117 pounds, a five-pound concession from the stakes winning colts and one pound from the others.

Mrs. Moody Jolley's Ridan, with Manuel Ycaza up, figures to be Cicada's chief rival. Third choice goes to Fred W. Hooper's Admiral's Voyage, under Braulio Baeza.

The race will carry a gross purse of $125,800 if all 11 start. In that event, the winner would earn $85,800 with $20,000, $10,000, $7,000 and $3,000 to the next four finishers in order.

Betting 6-5 And Take Pick In Moore Fight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The betting was about 6-5 and take your pick today on the heavyweight match between old-folks Archie Moore and Argentina's Alejandro Lavorante in the Sports Arena Friday night.

Moore, whose dwindling portion of the world light heavyweight title is not involved, kept secret his exact weight.

But it was apparent he has trimmed down and his advisor, Jack Kearns, said Moore will step into the ring at around 191 pounds.

The 25-year-old Lavorante, a ranking contender for the heavyweight crown, will weigh about 210, manager Pinkie George predicted.

There will be no television nor radio broadcast of the 10-round bout.

Ohio State Favored In NCAA Swim Meet

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Host Ohio State is the experts' pick to win the NCAA swimming championship in the meet which opens today. If the Buckeyes do it, they'll edge ahead of Michigan for the most team titles in the event's history.

The first of seven sessions, which continue through Saturday evening, was on tap this afternoon as the Buckeyes and Wolverines each launched bids for an 11th championship.

There are 66 other teams entered, but only two can boast previous NCAA swim crowns. Yale won four and Southern California one (1960) for the only interruptions in the domination by the two Big Ten powers since team scoring was inaugurated in 1937.

Prompt Hero, a Florida - bred, won Canada's famed Jockey Club Cup at Woodbine last year.

Donkey Basketball Set As Benefit In Midland

The Leopard Football Lettermen's Club will hold a donkey basketball game tonight in the old gym at Midland Lincoln High School.

The junior high basketball team will play members of the faculty at 7 and the lettermen's club will meet other faculty members at 8.

Charles Polce, Paul Farnan and Gerald LaValle sponsor the club.

Principal William A. Walters said an assembly will be held Friday at 1:15 p. m. when a group from New Brighton will give an exhibition of Karate, Japanese self-defense.

Walters said several members of the Hi-Spot Youth Center will be excused from study halls Tuesday to help conduct a Tag Day for the Easter Seal campaign, sponsored in the area by the Midland Rotary Club.

The price of horse shoes has gone up. Owners at Hialeah Park now pay $18 instead of $16 for a set, with resets raised from $10 to $14. Blacksmiths cite the rising cost of steel and aluminum as the reason.

Azalea Open Shows More S

By KEN ALYTA

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—The first 13 years apparently are the hardest. The Azalea Open golf Tournament, bigger and better than ever, opened its 14th staging today with its biggest purse ever, $20,000, and one of the strongest fields it has boasted in years.

In recent years the Azalea was bypassed by many of the top flight circuit stars. Some said they had to head for the Augusta Masters to sharpen their games for the classic the following week. Others just weren't interested in displaying their skills in a tournament with a purse that ranged between $10,000 and $12,500, last year's jackpot, over the 54-hole route.

Sponsors went to work before the final putt had dropped last spring and made plans to make the event more attractive to more of the top players. Wilmington, with a population of about 44,000, is one of the smallest cities on the PGA national tour. The 72-hole format was restored and the jackpot pushed up to $20,000.

As a result, the quality of the field is about the best in the tournament's history.

Gary Player, sharpening his game for his Masters defense next week, is in the field numbering about 120 pros and a few choice amateurs.

Four Pennsylvanians are members of the Army gymnastic team. They are Bob Balderson of Glenside, Mike Gray of Abbington, Joe Lengyel of McKeesport and Ralph Mitchell of Shippensburg.

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—The first 13 years apparently are the hardest. The Azalea Open golf Tournament, bigger and better than ever, opened its 14th staging today with its biggest purse ever, $20,000, and one of the strongest fields it has boasted in years.

In recent years the Azalea was bypassed by many of the top flight circuit stars. Some said they had to head for the Augusta Masters to sharpen their games for the classic the following week. Others just weren't interested in displaying their skills in a tournament with a purse that ranged between $10,000 and $12,500, last year's jackpot, over the 54-hole route.

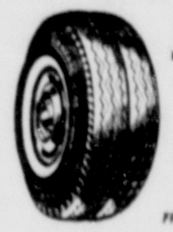

Sponsors went to work before the final putt had dropped last spring and made plans to make the event more attractive to more of the top players. Wilmington, with a population of about 44,000, is one of the smallest cities on the PGA national tour. The 72-hole format was restored and the jackpot pushed up to $20,000.

As a result, the quality of the field is about the best in the tournament's history.

Gary Player, sharpening his game for his Masters defense next week, is in the field numbering about 120 pros and a few choice amateurs.

Four Pennsylvanians are members of the Army gymnastic team. They are Bob Balderson of Glenside, Mike Gray of Abbington, Joe Lengyel of McKeesport and Ralph Mitchell of Shippensburg.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Princes, Counts And Kokomo Jr.

The girls — back in the mid-'50s, when "To Tell the Truth" got started — were called Assistant Producers on the Creative Side. This title didn't wear well, and now they are called Casting Directors.

Alan Gill

"They" are the small, taut, well-drilled and awfully shipshape squad of girls who go out onto the highways and byways and drag in the contestants who appear on this Goodson and Todman guessing game — whether a priest who is a jazz banjo player, a man who is the town crier in Williamsburg, or a baker who baked the President's birthday cake.

-:-

THEN THE GIRLS track down a pair of impostors who will do their darndest to convince the panel (Tom Posten, Johnny Carson, Kitty Carlisle and somebody else) that they are a jazz-banjo-playing priest, a town crier or a baker.

One of these seekers of lost persons is Miss Joyce Weiss and she is just young enough and just pretty enough to make a fellow in his middle prime feel like Barnard Baruch.

"There are obvious tricks, of course, to finding the right impostors," Joyce said. "If you need a tan girl in January, you go to an airline stewardess — one who has a New York-to-Miami route.

"For a girl with a Southern accent, you go to one of the women's clubs in New York — the Georgia Women's Club, the Alabama Women's Club, and so forth. And a really good source for any kind of regional accent is the Armed Forces.

-:-

"ONE DAY, in Grand Central Station, I saw just the sailor we needed and I stopped him and said, 'Pardon me, I'm recruiting people for this program, see,' and handed him an engraved card that Goodson and Todman have us carry around — a card that explains just everything — and before I knew it a cop was grabbing me by the shoulder and saying, 'Now, just a moment, miss.'

"It took a little explaining before the policeman realized I was from 'To Tell the Truth' rather than 'Walk on the Wild Side.'

"We give the impostors just an hour and a half of boning up before the program. It seems to be all they need. Most of them are good. But occasionally one will go into shock on you when he gets out there in front of the lights.

-:-

"ONE LADY, when she entered with a fanfare at the top of those stairs, began reeling. What do you call it? Acrophobia? That was a kind of run-through before the program. We took away her shoes and let her do it barefoot on the show and she was fine."

And if a contestant or his impostors get sick — what then?

"We've always got a standby team, just in case," Joyce said. "Our first trio of standbys stood by for three years, coming around to the studio every week, before they got on. The current standbys have been at it for two and a half years.

"I've met some wonderful people on the program. I've dated guest princes and guest counts. Very nice, glamorous dates. We've had governors and senators and once a judge impersonating a pickpocket.

"ONE SOLDIER we had on turned out to be a bigamist with seven wives, and from the legal mail that came in, all seven of them had been watching.

"We had a monkey-trainer on — a man with a wonderful chimpanzee pet called Kokomo Jr. I just loved that little thing. A few days later, I happened to see him in the hall at NBC and shouted, 'Kokomo!' and the two of us ran toward each other with our arms outstretched.

"When he got to me, Kokomo—who always wears gloves — stopped short, removed one glove very debonairely, and shook hands.

"Once we were to have the captain of the Army football team on. So I brought the two impostors — one of them a Coast Guardsman — up to West Point to get an Army haircut and to soak up the campus and get a look at the football field.

"We stood there in the empty stands on a midweek afternoon, while the team was in practice, and the impostors made notes. The coach, Red Blaik, was standing across the field from us. He spotted us there — particularly the coast guardsman scribbling away — and he was furious.

"He blew his whistle, stopped the scrimmage, and had us ordered out of the place. He never let us back in, either."

State Fire Marshal Warns On Old Jail

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — State Fire Marshal Wilson McLaughlin has told Trumbull County commissioners he will order the county jail evacuated and padlocked on July 1—unless arrangements are made for a new jail or repairs made on the present one.

He also gave the commissioners 30 days from Wednesday to make plans for boarding of prisoners. No more than two dozen can be kept in the 90-year-old jail at one time, McLaughlin said.

Former Ohio Senator Claimed At Age 96

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Former State Sen. L. R. Andrews, 96, died in Nashville, Ga., according to word received here Wednesday night. He was returning from a Florida vacation with his son Lee, a Dayton, Ohio, attorney, when stricken by a heart attack.

Retarded Unit Sets Election

The North Hancock County Council for Retarded Children met Wednesday night at the Jefferson elementary school in Newell and set election of officers April 17.

The election will be held at a meeting at American Legion home in Newell. A nominating committee was not appointed last night since not enough members were present.

Mrs. Anthony F. LaNeve, secretary-treasurer, presided.

Mrs. Peggy Mangano, teacher of the special class of retarded children, gave a report on birthday parties held in recent months. Sponsors were Mrs. Thelma McEldowney, Mrs. Barbara Milner and Miss Mary Mangano. Another birthday party will be held in April.

The council reported it purchased sand for the new sand table in the classroom. Announcement was made of the West Virginia Association for Retarded Children convention June 8-10 at Parkersburg.

Brochures were distributed for the 1962 "Apache" session for retarded children at Camp Gallahad near Charleston. Anyone interested in sending children to the camp may contact the council for applications.

Guests were Mrs. Geraldine Reed and Mrs. Denver Dawson, both of Chester, and Mrs. James Brown of Newell.

The special classroom was explained during an "open house."

Ayers Raps Kennedy Again On Vet Loans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. William H. Ayres, R-Ohio, again has criticized the Kennedy Administration for withholding funds for veterans' home loans—this time tying his comments to the administration request for public works spending.

Ayres of Akron, senior Republican on the House Veterans Committee, said Wednesday $600 million sought for public works would go mainly into construction work. Yet, he said, "at the same time the administration is withholding $300 million available for loans to veterans to build houses which would also benefit the construction industry."

20 Make Application For Wellsville Post

Twenty men filed applications for the Civil Service Commission examination for the position of Wellsville sanitation officer, John H. Grafton, 410 15th St., commission clerk, said today.

The vacancy was created by the death of O. B. Kessel, who served in the post for many years.

Singer 'Crushed,' In Hospital

Taylor-Fisher Marriage Reported 'On The Rocks'

NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Fisher is in a hospital here.

The New York Daily News says the singer, "crushed by the apparent collapse of his marriage with Liz Taylor has suffered a nervous breakdown and is a patient behind locked doors in a private hospital."

Fisher's personal manager, Milton Blackstone, says, "There's nothing mentally wrong with him."

Blackstone said Fisher entered a hospital for rest and relaxation and is scheduled to leave Friday. "He has a lot of work to do and some recordings to make," Blackstone added.

Blackstone said later that Louis Nizer, counsel for Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor, had issued this statement:

"Mr. Fisher is simply resting for a few days at a general hospital at the suggestion of his physician, Dr. Max Jacobson. All rumors of a more serious illness are unfounded.

"I have advised Miss Taylor in Rome of Eddie going to a hospital for a brief rest and she is comforted by the fact that the published statements of his condition are untrue.

The copyright story in the Daily News said, "The prospect of divorce proved too much for the young singer."

The Daily News said Fisher is in Gracie Square Hospital.

The hospital, which has a general division and a psychiatric division, said it has no patient registered as Eddie Fisher.

Fisher, 33, who arrived in New York from Rome on March 21, seemed normal last Sunday night when he appeared on television here (CBS-TV "What's My Line?")

Miss Taylor, 30, recently was linked romantically with Richard Burton, her male lead in "Cleopatra." The Fishers and Burton, who is married, have denied the reports.

The Daily News story, by Robert McCarthy and Sidney Kline, said Fisher was attended Wednesday by two psychiatrists and two nurses and described him as "pale, his eyes glazed, his bushy hair rumpled, in need of a shave. He did not respond to questioning by a News reporter."

2 Face Arraignment In Attempted Burglary

UNION, Mo. (AP) — Two Lebanon, Ohio, men, who were captured in an attempted high school burglary Monday at Pacific, Mo., have waived a preliminary hearing and will be arraigned before a Circuit Court judge later this week.

Both are being held at Franklin County jail in Union. Isaacs is charged with second-degree burglary and he and Dryburg both are charged with attempted burglary.

Authorities said the pair told them they were driving across country to California and had stopped off in Pacific expressly to burglarize the high school.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Princes, Counts And Kokomo Jr.

The girls — back in the mid-'50s, when "To Tell the Truth" got started — were called Assistant Producers on the Creative Side. This title didn't wear well, and now they are called Casting Directors.

Alan Gill

"They" are the small, taut, well-drilled and awfully shipshape squad of girls who go out onto the highways and byways and drag in the contestants who appear on this Goodson and Todman guessing game — whether a priest who is a jazz banjo player, a man who is the town crier in Williamsburg, or a baker who baked the President's birthday cake.

-:-

THEN THE GIRLS track down a pair of impostors who will do their darndest to convince the panel (Tom Posten, Johnny Carson, Kitty Carlisle and somebody else) that they are a jazz-banjo-playing priest, a town crier or a baker.

One of these seekers of lost persons is Miss Joyce Weiss and she is just young enough and just pretty enough to make a fellow in his middle prime feel like Barnard Baruch.

"There are obvious tricks, of course, to finding the right impostors," Joyce said. "If you need a tan girl in January, you go to an airline stewardess — one who has a New York-to-Miami route.

"For a girl with a Southern accent, you go to one of the women's clubs in New York — the Georgia Women's Club, the Alabama Women's Club, and so forth. And a really good source for any kind of regional accent is the Armed Forces.

-:-

"ONE DAY, in Grand Central Station, I saw just the sailor we needed and I stopped him and said, 'Pardon me, I'm recruiting people for this program, see,' and handed him an engraved card that Goodson and Todman have us carry around — a card that explains just everything — and before I knew it a cop was grabbing me by the shoulder and saying, 'Now, just a moment, miss.'

"It took a little explaining before the policeman realized I was from 'To Tell the Truth' rather than 'Walk on the Wild Side.'

"We give the impostors just an hour and a half of boning up before the program. It seems to be all they need. Most of them are good. But occasionally one will go into shock on you when he gets out there in front of the lights.

-:-

"ONE LADY, when she entered with a fanfare at the top of those stairs, began reeling. What do you call it? Acrophobia? That was a kind of run-through before the program. We took away her shoes and let her do it barefoot on the show and she was fine."

And if a contestant or his impostors get sick — what then?

"We've always got a standby team, just in case," Joyce said. "Our first trio of standbys stood by for three years, coming around to the studio every week, before they got on. The current standbys have been at it for two and a half years.

"I've met some wonderful people on the program. I've dated guest princes and guest counts. Very nice, glamorous dates. We've had governors and senators and once a judge impersonating a pickpocket.

"ONE SOLDIER we had on turned out to be a bigamist with seven wives, and from the legal mail that came in, all seven of them had been watching.

"We had a monkey-trainer on — a man with a wonderful chimpanzee pet called Kokomo Jr. I just loved that little thing. A few days later, I happened to see him in the hall at NBC and shouted, 'Kokomo!' and the two of us ran toward each other with our arms outstretched.

"When he got to me, Kokomo—who always wears gloves — stopped short, removed one glove very debonairely, and shook hands.

"Once we were to have the captain of the Army football team on. So I brought the two impostors — one of them a Coast Guardsman — up to West Point to get an Army haircut and to soak up the campus and get a look at the football field.

"We stood there in the empty stands on a midweek afternoon, while the team was in practice, and the impostors made notes. The coach, Red Blaik, was standing across the field from us. He spotted us there — particularly the coast guardsman scribbling away — and he was furious.

"He blew his whistle, stopped the scrimmage, and had us ordered out of the place. He never let us back in, either."

State Fire Marshal Warns On Old Jail

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — State Fire Marshal Wilson McLaughlin has told Trumbull County commissioners he will order the county jail evacuated and padlocked on July 1—unless arrangements are made for a new jail or repairs made on the present one.

He also gave the commissioners 30 days from Wednesday to make plans for boarding of prisoners. No more than two dozen can be kept in the 90-year-old jail at one time, McLaughlin said.

Former Ohio Senator Claimed At Age 96

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Former State Sen. L. R. Andrews, 96, died in Nashville, Ga., according to word received here Wednesday night. He was returning from a Florida vacation with his son Lee, a Dayton, Ohio, attorney, when stricken by a heart attack.

Retarded Unit Sets Election

The North Hancock County Council for Retarded Children met Wednesday night at the Jefferson elementary school in Newell and set election of officers April 17.

The election will be held at a meeting at American Legion home in Newell. A nominating committee was not appointed last night since not enough members were present.

Mrs. Anthony F. LaNeve, secretary-treasurer, presided.

Mrs. Peggy Mangano, teacher of the special class of retarded children, gave a report on birthday parties held in recent months. Sponsors were Mrs. Thelma McEldowney, Mrs. Barbara Milner and Miss Mary Mangano. Another birthday party will be held in April.

The council reported it purchased sand for the new sand table in the classroom. Announcement was made of the West Virginia Association for Retarded Children convention June 8-10 at Parkersburg.

Brochures were distributed for the 1962 "Apache" session for retarded children at Camp Gallahad near Charleston. Anyone interested in sending children to the camp may contact the council for applications.

Guests were Mrs. Geraldine Reed and Mrs. Denver Dawson, both of Chester, and Mrs. James Brown of Newell.

The special classroom was explained during an "open house."

Ayers Raps Kennedy Again On Vet Loans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. William H. Ayres, R-Ohio, again has criticized the Kennedy Administration for withholding funds for veterans' home loans—this time tying his comments to the administration request for public works spending.

Ayres of Akron, senior Republican on the House Veterans Committee, said Wednesday $600 million sought for public works would go mainly into construction work. Yet, he said, "at the same time the administration is withholding $300 million available for loans to veterans to build houses which would also benefit the construction industry."

Singer 'Crushed,' In Hospital

Taylor-Fisher Marriage Reported 'On The Rocks'

NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Fisher is in a hospital here.

The New York Daily News says the singer, "crushed by the apparent collapse of his marriage with Liz Taylor has suffered a nervous breakdown and is a patient behind locked doors in a private hospital."

Fisher's personal manager, Milton Blackstone, says, "There's nothing mentally wrong with him."

Blackstone said Fisher entered a hospital for rest and relaxation and is scheduled to leave Friday. "He has a lot of work to do and some recordings to make," Blackstone added.

Blackstone said later that Louis Nizer, counsel for Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor, had issued this statement:

"Mr. Fisher is simply resting for a few days at a general hospital at the suggestion of his physician, Dr. Max Jacobson. All rumors of a more serious illness are unfounded.

"I have advised Miss Taylor in Rome of Eddie going to a hospital for a brief rest and she is comforted by the fact that the published statements of his condition are untrue.

The copyright story in the Daily News said, "The prospect of divorce proved too much for the young singer."

The Daily News said Fisher is in Gracie Square Hospital.

The hospital, which has a general division and a psychiatric division, said it has no patient registered as Eddie Fisher.

Fisher, 33, who arrived in New York from Rome on March 21, seemed normal last Sunday night when he appeared on television here (CBS-TV "What's My Line?")

Miss Taylor, 30, recently was linked romantically with Richard Burton, her male lead in "Cleopatra." The Fishers and Burton, who is married, have denied the reports.

The Daily News story, by Robert McCarthy and Sidney Kline, said Fisher was attended Wednesday by two psychiatrists and two nurses and described him as "pale, his eyes glazed, his bushy hair rumpled, in need of a shave. He did not respond to questioning by a News reporter."

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Unruly Child Should Be Spanked

Now and then a mother writes about a tot, three, four or five years old, that she can't manage. Writes a mother from Missouri of her son, four: "When I punish him he always tries to get back at me by throwing whatever is handy, or tearing something up, or going into another room and doing something he shouldn't. "I have tried spanking him for this and also ignoring it. Neither seems to work. Putting him on a chair until he cools down seems to be the best solution.

Dr. Garry Meyers

"Some days he seems to enjoy just running through the house and tearing it up. He has a 21-month-old sister who likes to run with him, and I am always afraid they are going to fall and get hurt.

—:—

"AS LONG AS the little boy has something to do with his hands, such as puzzles, cutting, pasting, coloring, etc., he is good. I run out of things for him to do, though."

My reply in part:

You say yourself you are not consistent, that you sometimes punish, sometimes ignore. You probably wait till you get good and mad before decisive action. Then perhaps you give him just a little pat that doesn't hurt but only angers him, when you spank him.

If he knew he always would get instant pain that really hurt when he threw something or destroyed something deliberately, he would avoid doing so.

Since putting him into a chair till he cools down seems to work, why not use just this for punishment? But for best results the chair sentence should always be for a definite period, say 20 minutes.

—:—

WHY ALLOW HIM and his little sister to chase each other indoors unless you have a special playroom for such activity? Outdoors is the place for that.

Chair-sitting for both children could lessen this problem and be more effective as you spend more time helping him do things with his hands; also reading to each of them or to both at once.

But you can't hope always to provide such good activity; there must also be reasonable restraints.

Moreover, you and Dad should try to make this lad feel he is loved as much as his sister is. Dad might do most in this direction, trying to have more fun with the boy, building on his good traits and celebrating his successes.

My bulletins, "Love and Restraint" and "Fathers Are Parents, Too," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Buys Garage, Office

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—The city has purchased for $57,500 the bus garage and office facilities of Ohio Rapid Transit Co. and will lease them to the new holder of the city bus franchise, Y-City Transit Co. Y-City was formed recently after Ohio Rapid let its franchise expire. The firm bought Ohio Rapid's buses to keep the municipal transportation system operating.

Sign Presented To Nebo Grange

LISBON — The West Point Grange presented the traveling sign to the Mt. Nebo Grange Wednesday evening with 53 from 11 granges attending.

Mathew Amato, West Point lecturer, gave a program on "Early History of Townships in Columbiana County."

Resumes of Wayne, Salem, St. Clair and Hanover Townships were given by Amato, William Martin, Mrs. Lucile Possage and Philip Carnes.

There was a reading by Mrs. Mary Frantz, duets by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cusick and Mrs Marjorie Pandurean and Frank Hasson, accompanied by Joyce Martin, a skit by Cusick and Amato, riddles by Gary Amato and group singing with Mrs. John Steffen pianist.

It was announced the Grange will take the traveling sign to Calcutta Grange Tuesday, vesper services will be held at Willow Grove Grange April 8 after a covered dish dinner at 1 p. m. and Bayard Grange will exemplify the fifth degree at the Grange Hall April 7.

Lunch was served by the Mt. Nebo women.

Next meeting is April 11 when Robert Patchen of Columbiana, national defense school graduate, will speak on radiation fallout.

Suit Dismissed

CINCINNATI (AP)—S. B. Johnson's $75,000 slander suit against two personalities on the WKRC radio program "Party Line" has been dismissed in Common Pleas Court. Johnson filed the suit March 16, charging Ted McKay, who conducts the program, allowed James W. Beckman to make slanderous statements about him. The suit was against McKay and Beckman.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Mother Feeds Family And Diets Too

With overweight our most widespread nutritional problem, the modern homemaker has a meal-planning puzzle that would confound our hardy ancestors. How to help the dieters and please the family, too, takes a bit of doing. One homemaker writes:

Ida Jean Kain

"My husband, myself and one son are all overweight, so we have all three decided to diet. To curb the urge to splurge, we have a wager. . .the first one to lose 10 pounds is paid a small sum by each of the other two. This makes our dieting a challenging game.

"Since we have a large family, I cannot afford to buy the so-called diet foods. I need help in planning low-cost, low calorie meals that will still make it possible for the rest of the family to enjoy mealtime, and not feel that they, too, are on a diet."

—:—

LISTING THE ways she is trying to cut calories for the dieting members, she includes: Broiling meat, cooling soups to skim off the fat first, skim milk in mashed potatoes, adding about half the butter normally used.

As an evening snack the dieting trio have hot bouillon instead of pop and potato chips. The family meals include lots of eggs, cheese, cottage cheese and salads.

Congratulations! This is a perfect pattern for all-round family fare. It will give you more confidence in meal planning to realize that changing to a plan that controls calories is the greatest favor you could do your family.

It has been shown that in families where both parents are overweight more than 70 per cent of the children can be expected to become overweight. When one parent is overweight, this figure drops to 40 percent for the children, and to 10 percent when both parents are normal weight.

So the menu planning pattern that helps the dieters reduce can insure normal weight for the family. It's never hard to step up calories for non-dieters—second helpings, more bread and butter, and milk.

Desserts are probably the biggest hurdle. Many desserts can be those which dieters can enjoy. For example, with a big family there must be lots of birthday cakes.

Strawberry angel cake with a pink icing is a delight at 115 calories a slice.

—:—

PUDDINGS MADE with skim milk, fruit jello, baked apples and fresh fruits are good desserts. And how about crisp, juicy apples at night for everybody?

Keeping the servings of all foods modest will be the hardest part for the dieting trio. That wager is just the challenge needed.

Send a stamped, self-addressed long envelope for "Choose To Lose Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Rep. Cook Says No Scandals On Roads In Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reps. Robert E. Cook and Gordon H. Scherer of Ohio discussed highway scandals Wednesday, and Cook said, "I'm sure there are no such problems in Ohio."

Cook, Ravenna Democrat, and Scherer, Cincinnati Republican, spoke at a meeting of the Ohio Contractors Association. Both congressmen are members of the House Highway Investigations Subcommittee.

They said reports of road scandals in Massachusetts and elsewhere threaten to throw disrepute on the whole federal interstate state highway program. Scherer remarked that publicity over the scandals give many "the impression the whole program is shot through with corruption."

"Of course, it's not true," he said, calling the amount of fraud and graft "infinitesimally small."

Apartment Plan Set

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two Cleveland developers are planning a 350-suite apartment project at the West 98th Street - Detroit Ave. Rapid Transit station. The multi-million-dollar project would be the first such development stimulated by the CTS Rapid Transit since the Rapid was opened in 1955.

Negotiations Continue In Ford, UAW Dispute

CLEVELAND (AP) — Representatives of the Ford Motor Co. and United Auto Workers Local 1250, which has threatened to strike Ford's three big plants in suburban Brook Park, were to continue negotiations today.

Art Kuhns, president of Local 1250, said some progress was made in 13 hours of negotiating Wednesday. At issue are union grievances on health, safety and production standards.

Kuhns said meetings would continue as long as progress is made.

The union has given notice of intention to strike, and a required five-day cooling-off period ended at midnight Wednesday night. However, no date was set for a strike. The union represents 8,300 workers at two engine plants and a foundry.

4 Chester Students Attend Speech Event

Four Chester High School students and Charles Morris, faculty member, left this morning for Morgantown to take part in the 11th annual West Virginia interscholastic forensic tournament today through Saturday.

Gloria Blankenship and Patty Mack will be in the debate competition, Nancy Olash will take part in the prepared speech event, and William Hobbs is to be in the extemporaneous speech contest. About 24 schools are to participate.

Park Group Reviews Caretaker Candidates

Appointment of a Chester City Park caretaker was discussed at a meeting of the Park Commission Wednesday night.

Three candidates were considered and a special meeting was scheduled Friday night at 7:30 after the three men are contacted to determine their availability, Harold Dickey, chairman, said. G. D. Collins, caretaker, has resigned.

The commission also discussed planned boat docks for a creek site in the park.

2 Pen Parolees Face 22 Additional Counts

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP) — Two penitentiary parolees who have twice tried to break out of Clermont County jail were charged with 22 additional offenses by the grand jury Wednesday.

The panel returned 12 indictments against John Hargett, 21, Williamsburg, and 10 true bills against James T. Troxell, 19, Milford.

The pair broke out of jail last month and were recaptured near Hillsboro. For this, both were charged with burglary, armed robbery, auto theft and jail breaking.

Second escape attempt last Sunday failed, but earned the men charges of attempted escape plus two counts of assault with dangerous weapons each.

Road Hearing Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Highway Department plans a hearing in the Agricultural Hall of the Holmes County Courthouse in Millersburg at 2 p.m. April 2 to discus relocating Ohio 39 in Holmes-Tuscarawas counties. The proposed 5.15 miles length improvement would provide improved alignment and grade on a new location. Cost is estimated at $1,525,000.

Backs Public Works

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Joseph J. He declared five million American workers are unemployed primarily because of automation.

Manslaughter Charge To Stand In Slaying Case

CINCINNATI (AP) — John A. Cooper's confession that he cut up his stepson's body and scattered the pieces along a southern highway will not change the first-degree manslaughter charge against him, officials say.

"We do not have at this time any evidence of premeditation in the killing," Hamilton County Prosecutor C. Watson Hover said Wednesday night.

The prosecutor's office and suburban North College Hill police said Cooper's new confession gives this account of the death of John A. Jackson, 20, Jan. 21:

Cooper killed Jackson with a hammer, cut the body in pieces with a butcher knife and wrapped the pieces in aluminum foil and plastic packaging material.

Two days later he drove to Florida in Jackson's car and on the way back began throwing the packages containing portions of Jackson's body out the window. He left the car at an Atlanta garage and returned to Cincinnati by bus.

Sandusky Man Killed In Car-Truck Mishap

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) —A 56-year-old Sandusky County man was killed when his car sideswiped an approaching tractor-trailer truck about 12 miles east of here early today, the highway patrol reported.

Patrolmen said Kennard Miller Sr. of Gibsonburg was killed instantly in the accident on U.S. 6 near Ohio 281. Miller's car crossed the center line and scraped the side of the truck, investigators said.

The truck driver was uninjured.

—To False Alarm

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (AP) — A "frog burner," the name given by railroad men to the fire-jet device used to thaw frozen switches, caused three false alarms in the same location here this winter. Nearby residents saw the flame reflected from nearby buildings and turned in the alarms.

Manslaughter Charge To Stand In Slaying Case

CINCINNATI (AP) — John A. Cooper's confession that he cut up his stepson's body and scattered the pieces along a southern highway will not change the first-degree manslaughter charge against him, officials say.

"We do not have at this time any evidence of premeditation in the killing," Hamilton County Prosecutor C. Watson Hover said Wednesday night.

The prosecutor's office and suburban North College Hill police said Cooper's new confession gives this account of the death of John A. Jackson, 20, Jan. 21:

Cooper killed Jackson with a hammer, cut the body in pieces with a butcher knife and wrapped the pieces in aluminum foil and plastic packaging material.

Two days later he drove to Florida in Jackson's car and on the way back began throwing the packages containing portions of Jackson's body out the window. He left the car at an Atlanta garage and returned to Cincinnati by bus.

Sandusky Man Killed In Car-Truck Mishap

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) —A 56-year-old Sandusky County man was killed when his car sideswiped an approaching tractor-trailer truck about 12 miles east of here early today, the highway patrol reported.

Patrolmen said Kennard Miller Sr. of Gibsonburg was killed instantly in the accident on U.S. 6 near Ohio 281. Miller's car crossed the center line and scraped the side of the truck, investigators said.

The truck driver was uninjured.

—To False Alarm

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (AP) — A "frog burner," the name given by railroad men to the fire-jet device used to thaw frozen switches, caused three false alarms in the same location here this winter. Nearby residents saw the flame reflected from nearby buildings and turned in the alarms.

Junior Editors Quiz on TIMEPIECES

QUESTION: What is the most accurate timepiece in the world and where can it be found?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: There is not really one timepiece that is the most accurate. Two in this country serve as points of reference, however, for most clock-setting. The Bureau of Standards in Washington, D. C., maintains an atomic clock. This clock loses one second every 30 years. On the basis of readings of that clock, the Bureau of Standards broadcasts the time to the second. The United States Naval Observatory also has its timepiece, for navigation. The most important spot in time measurement is the Greenwich Meridian. In order to standardize time measurement all over the world, most countries decided toward the end of the last century to designate the longitude passing directly through Greenwich, England as the main line. From that longitude, the rest of the world was divided into 24 zones. Four of the zones fell across the United States—Eastern, Central, Mountain and Pacific. Previously, each country had determined its own time. Now, all time was determined first at Greenwich. For example, perhaps it was noon at Greenwich. The countries to the west of Greenwich added one hour per zone to Greenwich time to determine their time. Countries to the east subtracted one hour per zone.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: When it is Monday in England it is Tuesday in Indonesia. This peculiar situation brings in the International Date Line, another important line in time measurement. Find out where this line is located.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Readers: Recently a disenchanted husband who signed himself "Just a Boob" asked me to print his letter as a warning to other young fellows.

His wife's family lived like pigs, he said. They never sat at a table for meals—just walked around eating out of cartons and tin cans. Nothing in the house was ever repaired. The furniture was falling apart and the cracks in the walls and ceilings were a disgrace.

In closing, he expressed the conviction that girls imitate their mothers and he suggested that a young man look at his fiance's surroundings as a preview of what "his" home will be like.

Since then, Ive received a deluge of angry mail. The following writer requested "equal time" and I am delighted to give it.

-:-

Dear Ann: The letter from "Just a Boob" caused me great anxiety and opened up old wounds.

You see, Ann, I was brought up in much the same environment he described. When I visited the homes of friends I noticed the difference between their orderly, well-kept rooms and our miserable dump. By the time I was 13 I was so ashamed of the way we lived I wouldn't invite anyone over.

When I began to date I always tried to be picked up at a girl friend's house. When it couldn't be arranged, I'd meet the fellow at the front door and whisk him away before he could see the dilapidated furniture and and ragged, filthy curtains.

Today I'm married to a wonderful man. We have three children and a beautiful home. It's as different from my mother's house as sterling silver is from chrome.

I agree, Ann, environment is important but people can and do rise above it. And those who do, deserve credit.—MARY.

Beat Bad Rap

Dear Ann: I'm glad I didn't see "Boob's" letter five years ago.

The house he described sounded exactly like the one my wife came from. But I had faith in her. I knew she hated her environment and I knew, too, that when she got out of those terrible surroundings she'd do just the opposite.

My faith paid off. My wife is everything her mother isn't. Our home is lovely. The meals are tasty and beautifully served. It isn't true that every girl turns out to be just like the girl who married dear old father-in-law.—LUCKY PIERRE.

Dear Ann: I'm a "Boob," too, but a different kind.

My wife came from the most immaculate home in town. Her mother used to empty the ash tray before I finished the cigarette. Their house wasn't merely clean, it was postively sterile.

My wife and her mother never got along. Her mother was a driven perfectionist whose emphasis was on all the wrong things. My wife swore she'd be different.

Well, she is. Our home is unbelievable—no meals, no clean laundry, beds never made, just a plain mess.

I never would have believed this could happen but it did, and I am—ALSO STUCK.

On Other Foot

Dear Ann: So "Just a Boob" advises young men to look at the homes the girls come from before they marry—well, I'd like to suggsst that girls look at the young men's homes. It may give her an idea of what she'll have to put up with.

My husband's mother is a slob and he is a carbon copy of her. Everything goes on the floor—socks, shorts, ties, damp towels. He puts cigar butts in the dinner plates and wet glasses on mahogany tables. He never hangs up a suit coat or puts anything away.

He is more work than our three kids. So, girls, if you want to know what your husband is going to be like after marriage—go look at his mother.—24-HOUR DUTY.

-:-

So—dear readers, a small, limp, wet noodle for generalizing. There are indeed exceptions and I think every one of them must have written.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Village Makes Jackie An Honorary Citizen

MESSINI, Greece (AP) — This village in the Southern Peloponesus has made Jacqueline Kennedy an honorary citizen because she helped a local girl with a serious heart condition.

Mrs. Kennedy became interested in the case of Chrysanthemis "Memi" Papacotsis, 11, last July when the First Lady toured Greece. Heart surgery at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington apparently was a complete success, and Memi returned home last week.

Archbishop Hallinan, 51, a Painesville, Ohio, native who served much of his career in Cleveland, arrived by plane from Charleston, S. C., Wednesday. Bishop of the Charleston Diocese for four years, he was elevated to archbishop last month by Pope John XXIII.

The archbishop was ordained in Cleveland in 1937. He studied at Notre Dame University and, in Cleveland, at St. Mary's Seminary, John Carroll University and Western Reserve University.
